"Long Silk Gloves"

We have them, in all the desired shades: BLACK, WHITE, TAN, PINK, LIGHT BLUE, MASTIC, DARK BLUE, CHAMPAGNE, GREY, LILAC, PONGEE.

Twice the Wear

Now there's a difference in SILK GLOVES

Not only in the quality of silk—not only in their construction—but also in the workmanship. We specialize on the "Kayser", a strictly high grade "AMERICAN" concern, that have made gloves for the "particular American Dresser", for over 30 years.

Monday we shall have a window display on the Court street side of these "New Arrivals" and the prices will be surprisingly low.

See the display and then visit our glove department and be fitted while the stocks are fresh and sizes complete.

Oakland Telephone Girls Threaten To Strike Again

Oakland, Cal., July 25.—Another telephone strike is threatened here. Operators returning to work with the settlement of the strike announced this morning they will walk out again unless discrimination they allege is practiced against them, ceases immediately.

The girls charge they are being given the "unpleasant jobs," put on the night shift, etc. Oakland union officials will take the matter up with D. P. Pollerton of the telephone company in San Francisco later today.
