

Is It Vulgar To Tell What Is So?

By DR. PARKER

Founder and Executive Head of the E. R. Parker System

SOME people think it is vulgar to advertise dentistry, and it is vulgar if the advertising is not true. But it is never vulgar to advertise the truth about dentistry—it is never improper to advertise any good thing or any good service in the world.

A thing that can not stand the open light of public print is either mighty unworthy or mighty bad.

The E. R. Parker System is advertised because it is something worthy and something that confers a distinct benefit upon everybody who partakes of it.

The E. R. Parker System is widely used by Registered Dentists, whose combined knowledge and skill result in fine dentistry at lower prices than fine dentistry can be had in any other possible way.

You are invited to call at the Parker System offices, out of curiosity or for any other reason, just as you visit a clothing or dry goods store, and see what the System is.

When you call, you can have your teeth examined without charge, and learn in advance the price for having any dental work done that your teeth may require.

But you ought to know what the Parker System is, and the best way to know is to come and see.

down for any young man who wants to take advantage of it, and the way is open to an unlimited abuse of the privileges of the law. Consequently there may be such a draft upon this appropriation that it will disappear like a snowball in Yuma within a few months. The picture of an army of confiding students stranded in the middle of a course of study with an exhausted ap-

SOCIETY

By GERTRUDE ROBINSON

A group of young people, who had just returned from a trip to the natural wonders of Yosemite valley, Los Angeles, Vera Cruz, San Francisco and Sacramento were among the many points included in the itinerary. In the latter city they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Chabot, formerly of Salem, who accompanied them on a delightful outing at Lake Tahoe. According to Mr. and Mrs. Riggs, southern California is a joy forever, but in spite of all the tropic beauty of the country, Oregon stands a little ahead of her sister state in the south, in charm and homelike attractions.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stensloff, Miss Dorothy Stensloff, Miss Emma Waldert, Miss Lela Willard and Claude Stensloff, made up a party and motored to Elkhorn Sunday where they were guests of Mrs. M. M. Chapman, Mrs. George Pearce and Miss Dorothy Pearce who are camping there.

The Salem delegation of young folk who attended the Epworth League institute at Jefferson have returned from their camping trip there. The group included Miss Lila Heist, Chaparrone, Miss Catharine Gibbard, Miss Lavina Anderson, Mrs. Genevieve Field, Miss Louise Finley, Miss Carmen Howard, Miss Mildred Clark, Miss Metta Richardson, Fred Blake and Carl Refsum.

Governor Olcott has received an invitation from Governor Louis F. Hart of Washington, to be his guest at the state fair at Yakima on Thursday, September 8. That date has been designated by the board of managers of the Washington fair, as "governors day."

The Baptist parsonage on North Liberty street was the scene Monday evening of a delightful social gathering, when a hundred and more of the members and friends of the church gathered in the house and on the lawn. Miss Mabel Boerger and Miss Mina Gile had transformed the house and porch into a bower of beauty by an artistic arrangement of a profusion of flowers and vines. Daisies and roses in the parlor, daisies in the reception hall, gladioli and baby breath in the dining room and honeysuckle in the study with the twining of ivy vines about chandeliers and archways greeted the guests as they moved about. The guests were met at the door by Miss Lucy Holt. George Holt directed the games of the young people on the lawn. Mrs. Holt was assisted by a number of the women and young ladies in serving refreshments. During the evening Miss Ethelwyn Kelley rendered in her charming manner a number of readings and Miss Leona Estes sang effectively several solos.

A special guest of honor was Miss Abbie Davis, who has been an active worker in the church for several years, and who leaves this week to take a position as teacher in the public schools in Long Beach, California. She was presented with a leather bound autograph book containing a beautifully expressed appreciation from her friends and their names. The book was presented by Dr. G. F. Holt and Miss Davis expressed her thanks and her regrets at leaving Salem in a few well chosen words.

A table in the study containing a large number of souvenirs from the battle fields of France, sent to his parents by Lieut. Herbert B. Holt, attracted a good deal of attention.

A house with accommodations for 25 girls has been opened at La Rochelle, France, through the cooperation of the American Y. W. C. A. and three French societies interested in work for girls. The French organizations are the Friends of Young Girls, the Christian Union of Young Girls and the Christian Women's student organization. The house was opened under the direction of Miss Edna Sandlin of Birmingham, Ala., a Y. W. C. A. worker. Before coming to France, Miss Sandlin had extensive experience through the southern states in America in the work which the Y. W. C. A. did there in the army cantonments. Miss Sandlin is well known in Missouri, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Kentucky and Tennessee.

The house will be used by French women students as well as any transient French women traveling through that part of the country.

A motor party consisting of Miss Erolia Spitzbart, Miss Esther Spitzbart, Miss Helen Deckebach and Leo Spitzbart, left Sunday morning for a two weeks outing at Tillamook.

Professor and Mrs. T. S. Robertson, returned to Portland yesterday and enjoyed a trip over the Columbia highway today.

Lloyd T. Reynolds, a well known horticulturist living on the Pacific highway about three and a half miles north of Salem, and Miss Ruth Sauer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sauer living on route eight, were married Wednesday, July 23, Rev. G. F. Holt, pastor of the First Baptist church officiated. Only immediate relatives of the bride and groom were present. After the serving of refreshments Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds left for Seaside for a short honeymoon trip, after which they will be at home to their friends. They will reside at Mr. Reynolds' home just north of Salem.

One of the latest Salem boys to return from overseas is Orley Lettingwell, son of Mrs. George Lettingwell, who arrived in Salem Sunday evening after more than two years of service, 18 months of which were spent in the A. E. F. He left with the old Company M, but like a great many others, was transferred. He was last stationed at Nevers.

A very delightful program was given at Hill Crest, near Willamina, last Saturday evening followed by a box social for the purpose of raising money for a new organ. Reverend Alfred Bates of Salem, was auctioneer, and when the money was raised, Mrs. M. M. Chabot from Portland, who had purchased the organ, announced that she had decided to donate the organ so the money could be used for other purposes in connection with the church services there.

Munson Gains 18 Pounds Taking Tanlac—Is Well And Strong Again.

"I have gained eighteen pounds since I commenced taking Tanlac, and never felt better in my life than I do now," said Alex Munson, who, before his health failed, was a valued employee of the Foundation Ship Building Co., and lives at 1134 Michigan avenue Portland, Or., the other day. "When I began taking Tanlac," he continued, "I hadn't been able to hit a lick of work for over a year, and I had been suffering terribly from stomach trouble for about four years. It seemed to me that I had made every possible effort to overcome this trouble, but my condition gradually grew worse, and about a year ago I reached the point where I had to give up my work altogether. Everything I ate disagreed with me, and for two or three hours after meals I would be all bloated up with gas, and would have the most cramping pains in the pit of my stomach a man ever had. Then, this gas would often get up into my chest and make my heart palpitate something awful, and it would be almost impossible for me to get a good breath. I also suffered from constipation and often had splitting headaches. I was very nervous all the time, and never got a good night's sleep. These troubles just continued to pull me down until I got so weak and run down that when I went to walk my legs would just give right down under me.

"The money I had spent for medicines and treatments might just as well have been thrown in the Columbia river so far as the good I got from it, but I thought I would keep on trying, and that is why I gave Tanlac a trial when it came along. Well, sir, before I had finished my first bottle of Tanlac, I could see that I had struck it right at last, and I was right, too, for Tanlac certainly did just what they said it would do, and I am now a well, strong man again. My stomach troubles have all disappeared, and I am never bothered with gas forming, and I don't have those awful cramping spells any more. I have such a fine appetite that I can hardly get enough to eat, and everything I eat agrees with me all right. I have regained all my lost weight and strength, and am now getting ready to go back to work. Now, that is what Tanlac has done for me, and I think that is saying a whole lot for this wonderful medicine."

Tanlac is sold in Salem by Dr. S. C. Stone, in Hubbard by Hubbard Drug Co., in Mt. Angel by Ben Gooch, in Gervais by John Kelly, in Turner by H. P. Cornelius, in Woodburn by L. M. R. Shorey, in Silverton by George A. Steelhammer, in Gates by Mrs. J. P. McCurdy, in Stayton by C. A. Beauchamp, in Aurora by Aurora Drug Store, in St. Paul by Groceries Stores Co., in Donald by M. W. Johnson, in Jefferson by Poshay & Macon, and in Mill City by Marketeria Gro. Co.
