STRANG WILL FILE FOR PROBATE TODAY

Local Lodge And Congregational Church Are Named Benefactors.

The First Congregational church of Salem and DeMolay Commandery No. 3, Knights Templar of Salem, Oregon, were remembered in the will of A. Jessup Strang, which was filed for probate this morning. Mr. Strang died July 25. After providing that his just debts and funeral expenses be paid, Mr. Strang first bequeathed $500 to his great aunt Mrs. Josephine Reynolds of Portland. His second bequest was to another great aunt, Sophronia Jessup of Boise, Idaho, who has been temporarily living in Salem. For the benefit and use of DeMolay Commandery No. 3, Knights Templar of Salem, Mr. Strang willed 21 lots, all in East Creston addition to Portland. Also 20 lots in Astoria and 15 lots in addition to Milwaukee, Clackamas county, Oregon. Also one promissory note due him for $1485 and another of $1238, both signed by Oregon City parties. He named George G. Brown, M. L. Meyers and Judge George H. Burnett and their successors in office as trustees of this fund, giving them the privilege of selling and investing the funds for the benefit of the commandery. To the First Congregational church of Salem he willed 36 lots in Strang's addition to the city of Portland. He named G. G. Brown, Mrs. Fred S. Stewart and Dan J. Fry as trustees for this fund, giving them the right to sell and invest for the church, using the income as and the principal as a perpetual fund for the church. In a codicil to the will dated July 2, 1919, he provided that the two bequests of $500 each to two of his great aunts should be paid before those to the commandery and church, and that if necessary, amounts necessary should be taken from the commandery and church bequests to pay the $1000 willed to his great aunts.

Man Long Sought On Charge Of Embezzlement Located

After trailing a man wanted in Marion county for three years Sheriff W. L. Needham received a wire today announcing that C. R. Dudley, wanted in Salem for embezzlement, had been arrested in Los Angeles.

About one year ago Dudley was traced to San Francisco, but he got away a few hours before he could be arrested. At other times the trail became hot, but each time the man wanted managed to get away. In the summer of 1916 Dudley formed a partnership with Eugene Houston under the name of the Business Men's Adjustment company. When Houston went away a few days on business, Dudley left and it is alleged he carried with him about $600 that was not his own. His arrest has been brought about on the charge of embezzling and unlawfully converting to his own use $223 while acting as agent for Gibbs & Co. The wire received by Sheriff Needham this morning gave the information that Dudley's lawyer in Los Angeles had managed to get his client out on $1000 bail, awaiting the arrival of an officer from Salem. Deputy Sheriff P. H. Holmes will leave this evening to bring Dudley back with him to await the action of the grand jury in September.

Repeal Of Tax On Fruit Juices Is Urged Before Senate Committee Today

Washington, July 30.—Repeal of the war tax on grape juice, loganberry juice and other fruit beverages was urged before the senate finance committee today. "We have lost three fifths of our sales in the last year," Arthur M. Churchill, Portland, Or., told the committee. The present tax of 10 percent on gross sales in effect raised the loganberry tax from one cent a gallon to three cents a gallon when put up in pint bottles, Churchill explained. Senator Williams and other members suggested that retailers were taking advantage of the war tax to increase the price. Churchill proposed a tax of two cents a gallon on all fruit juices instead of the present ten percent on gross sales. Congressman Shreve, Pennsylvania, and Newton, Missouri, also appeared to ask repeal of the tax.

CITY NEWS.

in Willamette, taking the place of Prof. W. A. Darden, who has been called to the Atlantic coast. Prof. Coleman states that he has been reappointed to the chair of English at the Wisconsin university, but prefers to be connected with a smaller institution in which the religious atmosphere is more pronounced. Incidentally, he commends Willamette for its high standards. He has been actively engaged in educational work since 1906, holding positions in several prominent institutions of the east. Further he is a man of travel and has published works on educational subjects. Prof. Darden, who was associated with Willamette for only a few months, was called to North Carolina to take charge of a huge plantation belonging to his father, who had become too old and feeble to manage it.

May be assigned for duty with the 3d infantry regiment, national guard of Oregon.

The last will and testament of Mrs. George Minzenmier, the mother of Mrs. George C. Will, was filed with the county court of Marion county this morning. The will is dated Oct. 15, 1918. After providing that all just debts shall be paid, the first bequest is one of $10 to her son George Minzenmier. The balance of the estate, valued at about $8000 is to be equally divided, share and share alike to the other six children, Mrs. Marguerite Will, Lizzie Minzenmier, Prof. Minzenmier, Sarah Minzenmier, Bertha M. Ferrin and Charles Minzenmier. Mrs. Will and Sarah Minzenmier are named as executors.
