His numerous friends of Lieutenant Lamar Touse will be pleased to hear that he has returned to the United States and is, at present, at Camp Dix awaiting his release from service. Lieutenant Touse served with the 84th Infantry, 1st division. Before his enlistment he was attending the law school at Harvard and plans to return there after spending the summer in Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Marvin and daughter, Virginia, and Mrs. Agnes Harding have gone for a two weeks motor trip to Cheilan, Washington.

After an enjoyable visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Elliott, Captain John Elliott has returned to Camp Lewis to await his discharge.

Miss Margaret Fisher and Miss Alma Poble are among the numerous Salem folk who are summering at Newport. While there they are guests at the Cliff House.

At a quiet wedding in the First Christian church parsonage, Laura E. Hixson became the bride of Allen J. Cleveland yesterday afternoon. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Chester M. Hixson, and Reverend Leland W. Porter, pastor of the church, officiated.

Marooned on a tropical lake 2000 miles or more from home and camping on the brink of the crater of Kilimanjaro, one of the world's greatest active volcanoes, 200 girls, most of them pretty and all of them charming, are spending a vacation of two months in a manless Eden at Hilo in the island of Hawaii. This is not a scenario; it's a description of Hawaii's summer camp for homeless and homesick school teachers.

A few weeks ago the teachers found they couldn't get home for vacation, for the boats were full. L. A. Thurston, Honolulu newspaper publisher, suggested the idea of a summer camp for teachers at Kilimanjaro, where the great elevation and cool climate would give the young women a pleasant change from the rather depressing summer heat of the Hawaiian lowlands. The cooperation of the department of public education, the Y. M. C. A. and the army was enlisted. The military camp at the volcano was obtained for the accommodation of the teachers and such Y. M. C. A. members as cared to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Wiedmer, accompanied by their daughters, Miss Florence, Miss Inez and Miss Leona Wiedmer, will leave Monday morning for several weeks outing at Newport.

Mrs. E. Fritz Slade is spending a brief visit in Portland as the guest of friends.

Mrs. F. K. Shafer is in Portland where she will pass the week end with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Fullerton and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Canfield, will leave Sunday for a weeks outing at Mt. Rainier.

Mrs. Walter Spaulding has been spending a few days in Portland.

SLEEPS ANY OLD WAY NOW

"I am 50 years old and never was sick until 8 years ago when I got stomach trouble. I have spent a fortune for medicine which did not cure. I kept on suffering and getting worse. A fellow worker told me about Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. After taking three doses I felt like a different man; before taking it I could not lie on my back nor right side. Now I can sleep any old way." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. J. C. Perry and druggists everywhere.

PICNIC AT ST PAUL

The Knights of Columbus picnic in the St. Paul city park next Saturday will be attended by a large gathering from all around the country. There will be a basket lunch at noon, ball game between Mt. Angel and St. Paul teams, races, tug-of-war and different games and sports. It will be a great day and many will be present from Woodburn and vicinity. All are invited to attend and enjoy the picnic.—Woodburn Independent.

Don't let your children suffer. If they are fretful, peevish, puny or cross, give them Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea—a harmless but safe laxative for children. 35c. D. J. Fry.

What do you get out of tea? Taste and feeling. Common tea—you know how it tastes; and the tannin in it is bad for nerves and digestion. Good tea has the real tea-flavor: rich, delightful, exquisite. It is the cup that cheers.

Schilling Tea is the fine practical economical tea of this country.

There are four flavors of Schilling Tea—Japan, Ceylon-India, Oolong, English Breakfast. All one quality. In parchment-lined moisture-proof packages. At grocers everywhere. A. Schilling & Co. San Francisco
