CHICAGO STREETCAR MEN EXPECTED TO RETURN TO WORK FOLLOWING BALLOT

Chengo, Aug. 1.—Surface cars and slevated trains will probably be cunning by midnight tonight, thus ending the strike that has completely paralyzed Chicago's transportation system for four days.

This was the prediction today by W.
D. Mahon, international president of the carmen's union, who declared a majority of the 15,000 striking employes will vote today to return to work on a wage scale of 63 to 67 cents an hour. Voting on the referendum submitted by Mahon began at 8 a. m. today. Bal-lotag closed at 4 p. m. Straw votes taken last night by officials of the union showed the men in favor of the com-promise, which was suggested by flovernor Lowden, by a two to one vote.
Mahon, in a statement addressed is the couployes, urged them to accept the compromise, which, he said, offered the highest only received by electric railway couployes anywhere in America.
The life of the carmen's union was in danger if the men refused the propos-nls, he said. Mahon believed the outcome may be Manon believed the outcome may be known by 6 p. m. tenight. In that event he said, ears may be running ou reg-ular schedules by midnight. Scores of accidents were reported to police today, resulting from traffic con-gestion in the loop district. James P. Gorman was shot and serously wounded today by David Cassi dy, a precinct politician, police said, as a result of a difficulty arising from alleged refusal of Gorman to "pick up" Cassidy and drive him to tha op in his automobile.
