As a temporary proposition, it is thought that a large tent will be leased from the Union Stock yards at Portland for use as a hangar for airplanes at the state fair grounds. The tent was formerly used at state fairs for stock shows and is now owned by the Union Stock yards. Plans are now under way for bringing to Salem several of the fast De Havilland planes to take the place of the JN4D now used in the forest patrol. The De Havillands are fast planes capable of traveling about 120 miles an hour and also capable of carrying 20 gallons of gasoline, enough to keep the big plane in the air for three hours. The De Havillands will come from Mather field at Sacramento.

There is an Aurora borealis in town today and for this reason telegraph operators say the lines are not working in good condition. It extends especially over the northwest into Washington and Canada. These northern lights are sometimes visible at night and are electrical phenomena in the form of streamers of light, fan shaped. Whether they can be seen here or not the fact is, telegraph operators in the city say the electricity is interfering to some extent with the service today.

The day of courtesy to women especially on railroads seems to be a thing of the past, judging by what was seen yesterday on the O. W. R. & N. railway between Multnomah Falls and Portland. According to an observer, Sunday afternoon when the Portland train arrived at the Falls, about 300 husky men, both of the soldier type and older, fought their way into the coach to secure the best seats, pushing and shoving women aside. And after the train started, the same observer noted that with a dozen or more tired women standing in the aisle, not a one of the strong young men nor of the selfish older ones offered to give a woman a seat. And the women stood during the hour's ride to Portland while the men were seated in comfort.

The Easiest and Surest Way to Make Jellies, Preserves and Jams

There are many different ways to make jellies, preserves and jams as there are recipe books.

Sometimes the results are good, but often they are disappointing and much good material is lost.

Experienced cooks all over the country have learned that by making preserving syrup with 1/2 Karo (Red Label) and 1/2 sugar—instead of all sugar—they not only get better preserves, but are sure how their preserving is going to turn out.

This fine, clear Karo Syrup is a wonderful help in putting up fruits of all kinds. It has a natural affinity for the fruit juices. It blends the sugar with the juice, and brings out the "fruity" flavor.

Preserves made this way are richer, heavier, with a more delicious and delicate flavor.

Jellies will always "jell" and your jams be firm and mellow—no "candyng" in the glass.

For Cooking, Baking and Candy Making Karo (Red Label) is used in millions of homes. In all cooking and baking recipes use Karo instead of sugar. It is sweet, of delicate flavor, and brings out the natural flavor of the food.
