Beau Brummell

shaved serenely on

BEAU BRUMMELL who "taught Wales what a coat was like"—inventor of numberless niceties of dress—gambled himself into poverty. Publicly cut by the King, he had his last remaining finery laid out preparatory to seeking a friend who might save him from disgrace. With Weston, his faithful valet, keeping the door against the bailiffs, the great beau shaved serenely on. Prince of the Dandies to the last, he finished the job with the utmost care. Then, carefully wiping dry the precious blade and affectionately placing it in its case, he turned to Weston with the command: "Now let the rogues in."

The razor that Beau Brummell used was a shaving tool of wonderful balance. Length, temper and correct diagonal stroke were there; all it lacked was the safety and convenience of the double-edged, detachable blade of the

A Mammoth Reconstruction Project

MADE POSSIBLE—AND NECESSARY—BY ADVERTISING

NEW WRIGLEY CHEWING GUM FACTORY, CHICAGO

THE already tremendous chewing gum factory of the Wm. Wrigley Jr. Company, at 35th Street and Ashland Avenue, Chicago, is to be doubled in size. The first large unit of the new structure is now under construction. When completed, the new plant will comprise a million and a quarter square feet of space, devoted entirely to the manufacture of chewing gum. The area covered is six hundred by three hundred feet, the building being eight stories high with basement. It is of heavy reinforced concrete and steel, white terra-cotta exterior. Track facilities for loading fifty cars at one time are provided. Special features are a modern roof-garden, recreation hall, restaurant, hospital, welfare department, library, club rooms, smoking room, hand-ball courts, gymnasium and showers. S. Scott Jay, Architect, E. W. Sproul Co., General Contractors.

FORMER SERVICE MEN

HERE ALL HAVE JOBS

Discharged Soldiers And Sailors Well Provided With Employment.

So far as the War Camp Community service knows, and so far as the Commercial club is informed, no soldiers or sailors or marines are without positions in Salem.

The Soldiers and Sailors Commission of the State of Oregon, with offices at Portland has been so informed. It seems that the commission has just learned that the U. S. Employment bureau in Salem had been closed and was under the impression that the returned soldiers were being cared for mostly through this employment bureau.

The commission wrote the Salem Commercial club as follows: "We regret exceedingly the closing of the employment bureau in Salem and wonder whether it would be possible to handle the Salem soldier placement problem from the Liberty Temple in Portland and we are writing you this letter asking you if it could be arranged so that publicity could be given in the Salem papers to that effect, with the request that employees communicate their requirements to Captain James O'Connell, Liberty Temple, Portland, and that the former soldiers living in Salem or Marion county, desiring positions in Marion county, also communicate with Captain O'Connell."

"Such an arrangement of course, would be temporary and if the soldier replacement problem in Salem becomes critical, of course the commission would have to take steps of a more prominent nature to meet such a situation."

A letter from the Salem Commercial club informs the commission in Portland that Salem and Marion county is taking good care of its returned men and that so far, every man looking for work has found it.

California Governor Not To Call Special Session

San Francisco, Aug. 12.—"I am not considering the proposal to call a special session of the legislature to deal with the Asiatic question or any other problem," said Governor Stephens here today.
His attention had been called to a telegram sent him by the Fourteen Council.

This rash may become serious.

Some people are inclined to neglect a slight rash. They consider it a mere trifle and expect it to disappear next day. On the contrary this delay permits the rash often times to become more malignant in nature, and consequently more difficult to overcome and heal.
