Wallace Reid, handsome and versatile, slips away from the role of the society mae and appears tonight and Saturday at the Oregon theater in "The Love Burglar" a whirl of mistaken identities and pleasy of action. Suaday and Monday the Oregon shows Margaerite Clark in "Girls" an adaptation of Clyde Fitch's famous stage access. This is a picture that carries rapid action and a sparkle of real comedy from start to finish. In it Marguerite Clark appears in her most winsome form as the avowed man hater thru a train of strange situations.
