positive test for efficiency and performance. The prizes, totalling $10,000, comprised: Prizes for fastest flight—first, 1500; second, $700; third, $300. Prizes under handicap conditions for best performance—first, $2300; second, $1300; third, $800; fourth, $600; fifth, $550; sixth, $500; seventh, $450; eighth, $400; ninth, $350.

The race may cover most of two days. All machines must land at Albany, Syracuse and Buffalo, where they must remain at least thirty minutes while representatives of the contest committee, after inspecting the planes will determine whether they are fit to continue in the race. Just before Lieutenant Logan left the ground the sun appeared and the machine got off to a good start, darting through a hole in the clouds.

Major General Charles T. Menoher, chief of the army air service, was official starter, dropping a white handkerchief as the starting signal. Good weather was reported from Albany and conditions in the Toronto district were said to be fair.

Under good conditions it was said the first of the machines to depart would be able to cover the distance by 9 o'clock. The distance to Toronto is 520 miles and it was said the best of the planes would average nearly 100 miles an hour, weather permitting.

Among the planes speeding from Toronto to New York is a German Fokker, piloted by Colonel W. G. Barkley, Canadian ace, who is carrying a letter from the Prince of Wales to President Wilson.

Stop at Buffalo Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 25.—E. B. Coombs in a DH-9A was the first bird man in the Toronto-N. Y. aerial handicap to arrive here. He landed at Curtiss field at 1:25 p. m. Roland Rohls, holder of the world's altitude record, came in second, one minute behind Coombs.

The aviators ran into two rainstorms while crossing Lake Ontario. Major I. S. Harder, in a DE-7, who left Toronto at 12:54, arrived third, landing at 1:31 o'clock and Captain H. W. Cook, who left at 12:52 o'clock, arrived at 1:32 1/2. Rohls left Toronto at 12:56 and Coombs at 12:57.

A tremendous crowd greeted the airman and a cheer was sent up by thousands around the field when Coombs stepped from his airplane. Colonel W. G. Barkley in a Fokker, arrived fifth. He left Toronto at 12:53 1/2, arrived at 1:38; Bert Acost, Curtiss Oriole, sixth, left 12:57, arrived at 1:41; Lieutenant C. A. Schiller, JN-4-D, seventh, left at 1:04 1/2, arrived 1:51; Lieutenant Wallace Young, JN-4-D, eighth, left 12:56, arrived at 1:52 1/2 (went past field, losing 12 minutes.)

17 Leave Toronto Toronto, Ont., Aug. 25.—Seventeen airplanes, entrants in the race to New York and return "hopped off" at the Exhibition grounds here shortly after noon today. The start was made despite the delay in the departure of the New York machines.

The first plane rose at 12:05 and the others followed rapidly. A slight shower of rain fell about 1 o'clock, but lasted only a few minutes, after which the weather became clear. The planes had all left the exhibition grounds before the arrival there of the Prince of Wales.

60 PLANES IN NEW YORK-TORONTO RACE

Roosevelt Field, Mineola, L. I., Aug. 25.—Lieutenant P. H. Logan in a Leper airplane, took the air here at 1:55 p. m. today in the New York-Toronto aerial derby. He was accompanied by Sergeant W. U. Shaekeford as navigator. The other planes were expected to ascend at short intervals.

Forty-three airplanes to start from New York and 17 from Toronto will cover a total distance of 1123 miles. Both army and civilian planes were entered. The army entries included every type of craft in the United States air service, American and foreign. The wide variety of entrants was expected to enable a severe competition.

According to information received this morning, about 12 car loads of surplus army food has been shipped to Portland for distribution. Orders may now be accepted for this food as instructions have been issued by the post office department at Washington, that the sale of food will continue until each city has received its quota. This will give the people of Salem and vicinity the advantage of the postage rate of the first zone. It was the fourth zone rate to San Francisco that practically prevented people in Salem from getting in on this sale of government foods.

Nelson Bros. plumbers, is the only firm in this line of business that had taken out a plumbers license up to 2 o'clock this afternoon. At the last meeting of the city council, it was voted that the plumbers should comply with the law and take out licenses. In 1913 the council passed an ordinance providing for an annual fee of $20 for plumbers and also providing for a sanitary inspector. The plumbers paid their licenses regularly until early in 1916. After a plumbing firm from Portland came here and put in the plumbing work for the Court apartments without taking out a license, and after there was no sanitary inspector, the plumbers refused to pay their licenses, and the matter was dropped until called up by Gerald Volk at the last meeting of the council. The council says they are willing to pay if the remainder of the ordinance is complied with which provides for a plumbing inspector.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hamilton are home from a real hike of 123 miles along the coast of the strait of San Juan de Fuca and the Pacific ocean. The hike started at Twin Rivers on the coast about 30 miles from Port Angeles. Thence along the shores of the strait over wagon roads and trails, thence along the Pacific through the cedar and spruce belt of Moclips, he terminus of a railroad a few miles north of Grays Harbor. The nights were spent in camping out, or staying with farmers or at the lodging houses of loggers. The most exciting thing that happened to Mrs. Hamilton was when she was walking about a quarter of a mile in advance of Mr. Hamilton and a cougar crossed the trail about 50 feet ahead.
