HIPPODROME VAUDEVILLE SUNDAY

A nicely balanced show that provides entertainment from several different angles is the vaudeville bill selected by Manager Bligh for the Bligh theater Sunday.

Lee and Bennett have an especially attractive act called "I Love That Girl," and it is a keen, colorful arrangement of comedy dialogue plus singing, original as to theme and amazingly popular with the audience.

The "Girls of '61" is a delightful offering, in which romance of earlier days is suggested and maintained actively. The spirit and originality of this act is charmingly sustained.

A keen chap is Alf Ripon, who registers 100 per cent with his dummy friend Reginald. Reggie for brief, Alf's comedy is new and smart and applause winning.

The photoplay "Beating Odds" is a five part Vitagraph feature on the same show.

HUBBARD NEWS

F. H. Myers and family moved to Roseburg last week and the property vacated by them, the Turnbull property, was at once occupied by Peter Stock and family, moving here from Woodburn. Mr. Stock is one of the proprietors of the Hubbard meat market.

Mrs. Henry Boje went to Myrtle Creek Thursday to be there when her son Orvie picks his bumper crop of prunes which will soon begin to ripen. Henry Boje will probably arrive at the same interesting location a few days later, as one man doesn't like to batch any better than another.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Enger and daughter, Gladys, of Brownsville, spent the week-end the guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Miller and Sunday made the trip over the Columbia highway. Mr. Enger said that Brownsville was beginning to recover from the recent bad fire there that destroyed three block of buildings—some good buildings were to replace the ones burned.

Mrs. Alice Richmond, formerly of Hubbard, but for the past year at Bend, was in Hubbard Tuesday calling on friends, enroute to Eugene on business. Mrs. Richmond has disposed of her property at Cottage Grove and was contemplating making Eugene her home, her son being located there. Miss Eva Richmond, who for two years was a member of the Hubbard school faculty is living in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Brown returned to their home in Hutchinson, Kansas, last Saturday morning after a seven-

PICKERS GET LOST IN THE ABIQUA PEACH ORCHARD

Word comes from the Abiqua peach orchard that some of the pickers there actually got lost among the trees and have to be brought in by searching parties. The management has now placed markers throughout the orchard to guide the pickers safely out. The trees in the orchard are well down to the ground making it impossible to see under them, thus the confusion. What a pleasant sensation though to be lost in a peach orchard, especially this time of the year—Silverton, Appeal.
