MONMOUTH NEWS.

(Capital Journal Special Service.) The indications are that the attendance at the normal school will be much larger than last year. All rooms in the dormitory were engaged some time ago and inquiries for board and room in private homes keep pouring in.

northwest. There were nineteen head in the early young and old, the choicest of the Wairarapa herd, headed by the herd sire Dominus. All the nineteen except two are descendants of Dominus. Jim Dalrymple is in charge of the stock, which will be exhibited at five fairs, the last one being the Oregon state fair, in Salem.

L. P. Willard of Twin Falls, Idaho, has purchased 2 1/2 acres of the Butler estate inside the city limits in north Monmouth at $140 per acre. This tract has no improvements but adjoins the Charles Jackson residence which Mr. Willard has rented for the ensuing year.

Rev. W. A. Elkins, captain-chaplain in the coast artillery and former pastor of the local Christian church, has purchased a book and art store in Eugene, known as the Church & School Publishing company, and has taken charge, having moved with his family in July.

The new officers of the Social Hour club elected for the ensuing year, are: President, Miss Maggie Butler; vice-president, Mrs. George Boothby; secretary, Mrs. George Crawford; committee on classification of books, Mrs. Clotus Butler, Dr. Laura Price and Mrs. L. P. Gilmore; committee on entertainment, Mrs. Orville Butler, Mrs. Boothby and Miss Cassie Stamp.

The Treat home in east Monmouth was the scene of a very happy surprise party Saturday, August 23, when a number of friends and neighbors gathered there to help Mrs. Ford celebrate her 68th birthday. A special feature of the afternoon entertainment was the whistling of an old time song by Mrs. Lark Hall. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served and the guests departed leaving many beautiful birthday cards with their messages of cheer for the invalid lady.

Miss Daphne Ostrom has been taking a rest from her duties at the office of the American Railway Express company in Portland. After spending a week with friends in Washington and at the beach she came to Monmouth for a week's visit with home folks.

Miss Doreas Conklin, who was taken to a Salem hospital last Tuesday, is much improved and was brought home Sunday. Miss Conklin was suffering from an abscess in her head which broke and discharged onto the ear drums, seriously threatening her hearing. Physicians thought for a time that it would be necessary to operate but her condition became so much improved that this was not necessary.

The families of Ed Rodgers and Paul Riley are taking an outing at Netarts beach. They motored over Friday and will remain for a week or until they succeed in bagging a good supply of clams and perhaps a deer or a bear, both of which are to be found there.

Mrs. E. J. Clark, who has been ill for the past two weeks at her home here, became worse Saturday afternoon and was taken to the Salem hospital. On Monday morning her condition was somewhat improved.

The Pollan brothers have finished with the hay rest in eastern Oregon and have moved on to Washington where they are now hauling grain. They are getting eight and ten dollars per day, board and horse feed extra.

Miss Gladys Evans has been picking evergreen blackberries in the vicinity of Louisville lately, earning up about $4 per day.

The offer of sixty cents per box for hop picking does not seem to appeal to a great number of Monmouthites this year; the abundance of wild blackberries to be held for the picking, which bring a good price at the canneries and the increased price paid for fruit work in the pruned orchards seems more attractive.

A number of Monmouth young people are planning to enter the University of Oregon this fall, several of them being returned soldiers. Clares Powell and Stanley Evans motored to Eugene Saturday where they will remain for a few days investigating conditions and prospects preliminary to their entrance at the beginning of the fall semester.

William Riddell Jr., returned Saturday evening from Salt Lake City where he had gone to attend a sale of fancy sheep. There were all kinds of sheep offered for sale and Mr. Riddell had intended to purchase rams for his flock but saw none that he considered as high better than his own to justify making the change.

The Ostrom family are taking the air in a Ford sedan, purchased last week of Graham & Son.

George Sullivan and wife have sold out in McMinnville and have returned to Monmouth. They will occupy their residence on Main street, where they formerly lived. Mr. Sullivan expects to buy stock hogs and fatten them on the market.

Keep 'em In The Circle

Is Backache Wearing You Out?

DOES any little exertion leave you tired and worn? Do you feel weak, nervous, "all unstrung?" Do you suffer daily backache, dizziness, and sick headache? You shouldn't! Too many folks drag along day in and day out, thus handicapped. And too often they overlook the kidneys which are likely at fault. Weak kidneys cause many queer aches, pains and kidney irregularities. But, if taken in time, kidney ills are usually easily corrected. Neglected, even a slight kidney weakness may turn into gravel, dropsy or Bright's disease. Don't wait! You owe it to yourself to get well and to stay well. Use Doan's Kidney Pills! Doan's have brought thousands of weak, tired, discouraged people back to health. Salem folks tell the story. Ask your neighbor!
