

Millions to Choose From

Our September offering list includes a long and diversified selection of municipal bonds, corporation securities, and foreign government and municipal bonds, aggregating value running into millions of dollars. Nearly all of these securities are now on hand ready for immediate delivery to investors.

Before purchasing bonds with our own funds, we first scrutinize carefully the legality of an issue and the security behind it. As a result, we offer and recommend only those securities which we regard as safe and desirable from an investment standpoint.

After you have decided which of the following offerings best suits your particular requirements, we cordially invite you to apply to us for full details.

LEGION PLANNING ON MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

Campaign For Big Representation At Portland Meeting Started.

Plans for a big membership campaign of Capital Post No. 9, American Legion, were made at the meeting held last evening at the Commercial club and also for a get-together meeting to be held during the state fair when the War community service will aid in giving a welcome to members of the American Legion. Dr. W. Carlton Smith as president of the Legion, presided.

To attend the state meeting of the American Legion to be held in Portland Sept. 17-19, the following delegates were elected: Dr. W. Carlton Smith, Ivan G. McDaniel, Dr. R. C. Byrd, Millar McGilchrist, Leo Page, Robin D. Day, Fred S. Lamport and L. H. Compton. The alternates are Fred Mangis, Carl Hinges, Ralph Southwick, Max Page, Dr. C. B. O'Neill and Lyle Page.

In order that the membership of the American Legion may be a representative number of the 700 or more service men in the county, a membership committee was appointed as follows: Robin D. Day, chairman; L. W. Lewis, John Holman, C. W. Jones, Walter W. Miller, John Gries, L. Bartruff, N. C. Potter and Ivan G. McDaniel.

To arrange for the big meeting during the state fair a committee was appointed to consist of Leo Page, W. R. Murray, Carl Hinges, Carl Gabrielson and Kurt Simpson. As there will be some entertaining features, to attend to this part of the program, L. H. Compton, John Holman, Fred Mangis and Paul Hendricks were appointed. There is also a committee on employment and benevolence of which Paul Wallace is chairman and associated with him are Dr. B. F. Pound and Fred S. Lamport.

CARRANZA TROOPS

the Rio Grande river, where the shooting occurred. The soldiers of the outpost admitted the shooting, declaring the aviators were over Mexican soil.

The commander of the outpost was absent at the time. The soldiers complained, General Carranza's statement said, they had received many complaints of aviators flying over Mexican soil, fighting livestock. Carranza said he had protested the flying over Mexican soil but that his protest repeatedly had been ignored. He said it had been reported to him the aviators had taken photographs of Mexican territory.

The statement, as given out at the Mexican consul's office, made no effort to deny the shooting was done by the Carranza outpost, but went into lengthy explanation, attempting to justify the attack on grounds the aviator's alleged flight over Mexican soil constituted a breach of international law.

Captain McNabb was resting easily today and it was declared the bullet wound in his head was not serious. Colonel B. B. Buck, commanding the Laredo district, would make no statement today, pending instructions from Major General Dickman, commanding the southern department, with headquarters in San Antonio. While there teeting the executive's life, will occupy a car next to that of the president and will be with him every minute he is away from the train. Extraordinary precautions have been arranged for every stop.

The president's train will consist of his private car, and one for secret service men, one for newspapermen, a diner and two baggage cars. It is to run as the second section to regular trains instead of as a special. A pilot locomotive will precede it everywhere, to safeguard the way. The start is at 7 p. m. and the first leg of the trip will be over the Pennsylvania, passing through Harrisburg and Pittsburgh in the night. Wilson's first stop is at Columbus, Ohio, where he speaks tomorrow morning.

Before leaving Washington the president will send out invitations to labor leaders, representative of capital and of the farmers to attend a "round table" conference here shortly after conclusion of the trip. The president plans to complete all arrangements for the conference before his departure. The president is also expected to sign the bill giving General Pershing the rank of general for life before leaving Washington.

rights and possessions in Shanghai. She has held them for five years and it is preposterous to assume either that Japan would knuckle down to a majority of the United States senate in this matter just as it is preposterous to assume that France, Great Britain or Italy would ask her to do so.

"It is therefore evident that if such a proposition were submitted to the nations associated with us in this war we would be met by an instant refusal to accept the amendment, and then there would be the United States find itself in this international settlement?"

"The answer is simple. We would find ourselves out in the cold, isolated from the rest of the world. The work of ratifying the treaty would proceed without us and within a period of a few weeks after France and Japan had ratified the treaty, it would be in working order; it would become an established settlement and operations unaided it would be commenced."

"It is easy for anyone to see the enormous benefits which Great Britain and France will derive from the treaty. I think no one will dispute that those two nations at least will do nothing to imperil this treaty. They will not take any chances. Japan is in a more inde-
