The Salem Women's club will resume its activities next Saturday. A strong program has been prepared for the coming year, and every meeting promises to be filled with affairs of poignant interest to each individual member as well as to the club as a whole.

Next Saturday the club season will open officially with a short business session. The various committees will report on the work to be done during the year and the rest of the meeting will be in the form of a home coming, enabling the members to exchange ideas and make suggestions for the general welfare of the organization.

The first event of the season will be the club breakfast on October 11th. This will be one of the principal social affairs of the season and plans are already under way to make it a memorable success. On October 13th the state Federation of Women's clubs opens its annual convention in Corvallis. A regular "Salem Day" will be observed and every woman in the club will deem it a pleasurable duty to attend.

The work for the entire year is outlined along important and efficient lines. Mrs. A. N. Bush who is a member of the park committee has a number of valuable plans regarding the beautifying of the city parks. Miss Flora Case of the literature and library committee has interesting suggestions to make concerning a course of reading along current topics and events.

Miss Cornelia Marvin who leaves shortly for an extensive tour of the Orient, will tell of her experiences and impressions of the far east, at a club meeting, upon her return. Countless other items of pronounced interest will be dealt with during the coming year and the season promises to be one of the most prosperous in the history of the club. In order to add a social note to the regular monthly meetings, a tea hour will be after each gathering, so that those women who have been unable to attend the business session, but who might be in the downtown district on business or shopping errands, may stop in for tea and exchange greetings with their sister members. All women in the city, who are not included in the personnel of the Salem Women's club, and who are cognizant of and interested in club work, or who desire to become identified with that kind of social activity are cordially invited to join.

Mrs. Zador Riggs, as president, heads the following list of competent officers: Mrs. W. L. Staley vice president, Mrs. W. E. Kirk recording secretary, Miss Edith Hazard financial secretary, Mrs. Grover C. Bellinger, treasurer, Mrs. U. G. Shipley auditor, Directors, Mrs. Clarence Hamilton, 1921; Mrs. George Pearson, 1921; Mrs. Robert J. Hendricks, 1922.

Mrs. R. B. Houston, who has been the house guest of Mrs. Paul Schmidt for the past fortnight, will leave today for her home in Santa Rosa, California. Mrs. Houston is a former capital city resident and numbers among her friends some of the city's most influential and prominent social and club leaders. During her visit here she has been extremely entertained. She has also been the guest of friends in Portland, Woodburn and other valley towns where she was the recipient of many social compliments. She plans to return about the latter part of October for a more extensive visit with her numerous friends in Salem.

During her stay here, her daughter, Mrs. Edburn Boege (Florence Houston) had as her house guest in Santa Rosa, Miss Ruth Boggs of Portland. Both Mrs. Boege and Miss Ruth are well known in Salem. The latter is at present connected with the Portland Telegram.

Notwithstanding the fact that autumn is here and that aside from a few freshies and healthy coats of tan the heat of the summer is merely a reminiscence, tourist parties are still leaving the city on belated vacation jaunts and sight seeing trips. The interest seems to have waned from the north and south, and the cities of the east are claiming the attention of Salemites who choose traveling as the most approved form of vacation enjoyment. The latest capital city resident to join the ranks of the travelers are, Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Boyer who left Thursday on an extended eastern trip. They will visit all the important cities in the principal states of the country, returning by way of California where they will stop over in the most notable places of interest. Mrs. Boyer will be gone for two months but Mr. Boyer will return in about thirty days.

Honoring the birthday anniversary of her daughter, Miss Usona Haid, Mrs. Herbert Haid entertained a coterie of young friends with a picnic party at Spang's landing, Tuesday. The time was spent in ideal outdoor fashion, swimming being the favorite enjoyment. The sumptuous picnic dinner and a huge bon fire were special features of the affair. Those who motored to the landing and enjoyed the merry event were Helen Moore, Valerie Briggs, Lovell Eaton, Usona Haid, Mrs. E. C. Faison, Doyle Snyder of Portland, Dewey Probst and Mrs. Haid.

MISS ELIZABETH LEVY.

Talented violinist, who has returned from an extended visit in California where she filled professional engagements in Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Undoubtedly one of the prettiest weddings of the season took place Wednesday evening when Miss Ella Ruge became the bride of Fred Gibson of this city. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's father, C. S. Ruge, in Kingwood park, Reverend Leland W. Porter of the First Christian church officiating.

The bride was lovely in a beautiful creation of ivory satin, elaborated with silver lace. She wore tiny white rosebuds in her hair and carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas in pastel shades. Her sister, Miss Mabel Ruge, acted as bridesmaid. She was attired in a suit of tan silk and her bouquet was of asters, also in pastel shades. Little Joyce Anderson, niece of the bride was ring bearer and Miss Rose Bodayia played the wedding march. Duane Gibson, brother of the groom, was best man. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held, followed by the serving of light refreshments. The house was magnificently decorated with huge bowls of lavender and white asters, prettily offset with green fern. Miss Lily Ruge, Miss Mabel Ruge, Mrs. Edward Rex, Mrs. W. T. Anderson and Miss Esther Anderson cut ices and assisted in serving.

For her going away suit the bride chose a smart tailor of taupe. Miss Rose Bodayia caught the bridal bouquet. Mrs. Gibson is a daughter of C. S. Ruge of Kingwood park and one of the most popular young maidens of her set. For a number of years prior to her marriage she was employed in the office of Dr. D. X. Beecher and has a host of friends in Salem. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Gibson of this city. He is manager of his father's immense fruit farm six miles west of Salem on the Oak Grove road, where the young couple will reside after a short honeymoon at Seaside.

Guests at the wedding were, C. S. Ruge, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rex of Independence, Mrs. W. T. Anderson of Newberg, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. V. T. Gibson, Duane Gibson, Rex Gibson, Reverend and Mrs. Leland W. Porter, Mrs. Carrie Fisher, Miss Esther Anderson, Miss Lily Ruge, Miss Mabel Ruge, Miss Rose Bodayia, Albert Schwartz of Toledo and Miss Joyce Anderson.

Salem will be well represented at the G. A. R. convention in Columbus, Ohio. The local post is one of the most flourishing in the state and has made a reputation for itself because of its initiative and progressive policies. Among the delegates from Salem who will take part in the festivities at the convention are, Commander Daniel Webster, Mr. and Mrs. Gideon Stoltz, Mrs. Lenta Westcott, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Dennison, Dr. and Mrs. D. F. Lane, Rev. and Mrs. James L. Lisle, Mr. and Mrs. Ledbetter, Mr. and Mrs. William Crum, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Cromler, Mr. and Mrs. Ledbetter, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. L. Porter, Goe Winkland, Albert Hart, Mrs. Susan Graham, H. Nelson, Mrs. Bailey and two daughters, Mrs. Sarah Oliver, J. A. Smith, J. Watson, Mrs. Elizabeth Adair and James McClellan.

The women of Polk county have organized their county well for the "Be-a-brick, buy-a-brick" campaign for a nursery for the Pacific Coast Rescue and Protective society. Mrs. Wynne Johnson is chairman. Chairmen for the various localities are, Dallas, Mrs. H. A. Woods; Independence, B. F. D. Mrs. Charlotte Rose; Monmouth, Dr. Laura C. Price; Independence, Mrs. C. T. Ecker; Falls City, W. H. Beard. They will have a drive next Tuesday and will urge Polk county people to complete its quota on that date.

Miss Elizabeth Levy has returned from a four weeks sojourn in California where she visited all the points of interest as far south as Mexico. While at Santa Monica Miss Levy had the pleasure of playing for a very large affair given in honor of the Pacific fleet and was most enthusiastically received. At Los Angeles she received much praise for her artistic renditions given at a large reception in honor of Mrs. Stuyvesant Underhill of New York. Mrs. S. Levy accompanied her daughter south.

The wedding of Miss Ruby Cornell and George P. Griffith was solemnized at the home of Mrs. Lenta Westcott, 375 Court street, Tuesday afternoon, Reverend Leland W. Porter of the First Christian church officiated. It was a very quiet affair, only the immediate members of the two families being present. The bride's gown was a beautiful combination of pink georgette and tulle and she wore a large hat to match. Her corsage bouquet was of Ophelia roses. Following the ceremony an informal reception was held and a light luncheon served to the guests. The living rooms were artistically decorated with a wealth of pink asters, while in the dining room pink and white sweet peas were used in carrying out the dainty color scheme.

The bride is a charming young woman, well known in the city and extremely popular. The groom is a graduate of the University of Nebraska and a prominent member of the Masons and Elk lodge. He is a banker of Jefferson, Oregon, and was lately interested in the Marion garage in this city. He is an ex-service man having spent nearly two years in France. The young couple are spending a few weeks honeymoon in Vancouver, B. C., and upon their return will make their home in Jefferson.

What promises to be one of the most influential organizations of men in the entire country is rapidly being organized in all the cities and small towns of the United States from which men went out to the army, navy or marine corps in the late struggle with Germany. It is known as the American Legion and is composed solely of men who saw service in the recent war. Salem gave as generously of her young manhood as any city of its size in the country, and Salem's branch of the American Legion should be as large and flourishing as any in the state. "We stand by each other—let's stick by each other" pleads their official poster, and that voices the keynote of the entire organization.

Major Carlton Smith has been elected president of Capital Post No. 9. The other officers are as follows: vice president, Jos McAllister; secretary, Richard O. Hansen; treasurer, Millar McVilchrist; historian, Max Page; chaplain, Lloyd T. Rigdon; executive committee, Fred Mangis, Carl Steiwer, Paul Wallace, Brazier Small and Paul Hendricks.

Miss Ella Ruge whose wedding to Fred Gibson was an event of Wednesday evening was the house guest of her sister, Mrs. W. T. Anderson of Newberg, during the first part of the week and while there was complimented with a prettily conducted shower at which Mrs. Anderson was hostess. She was also guest of honor at an informal party and was entertained with a number of luncheons and motor parties during her visit.

Mrs. Elbert Thompson and her small daughter, Fay Louise, will leave for Philomath the first of the week where she will take up her position as principal of the high school in that city.

Shipley's

Display of Autumn Fashions Coats and Suits

Alert with the genius of the best designers of THIS COUNTRY, here are fashions sympathetically and cleverly adapted to the American woman's ideas of smartness and with the individuality and distinction that she insists upon.

Particular stress is laid upon the quality of the fabrics and the extreme reasonableness of the values. Had not our makers been able to buy heavily at the time when the mills began booking orders our selling prices today could not be possible. For it is a fact that the piece goods market quickly stiffened and that prices advanced sharply, which means that makers and retailers not so fortunate must now ask correspondingly more. We invite your inspection. We are satisfied that nowhere will you find fashion more surely right--nowhere will you find better values.

The Oregon Congress of Mothers will hold their state convention in Medford in the early fall, the dates to be announced soon. Mrs. Frederick Schilke president, who arrived from La Grande last night, will plan with the board members for the big meeting. Mrs. A. Bayley, in charge of the parents' educational bureau, states that the congress has been asked to put on eugenic tests at the state fair in Salem, and this is being considered. The tests are not like the old fashioned baby show in which beauty alone was a requisite. The tests as made by the bureau are from a standpoint of physical and mental fitness. The bureau is regarded as one of the leading institutions in this work in the country, and is one of the important activities of the congress of mothers.

Mrs. Norma Terwilliger has been appointed as one of the delegates at large to represent the Woman's Relief Corps at the encampment in Columbus Ohio. She left with a group of women active in W. R. C. work, Thursday evening. The other delegates in the party were Mrs. Mary Reed, of Portland, Mrs. Mary E. Watt of Corvallis and Mrs. Anna Stenebach of Grants Pass. Miss Anna Mullen, who has been spending the past month in Minneapolis, has returned home. Miss Mullen was called east by the serious illness of her father and his improved condition is responsible for her return.

Because Governor Oleott, it is asserted, is holding up the ratification of suffrage, a letter put out by the suffrage ratification committee and signed by Mrs. J. W. Hawkins of Portland, is reaching women in every part of the state today. Mrs. Hawkins' letter is an appeal that women point out to the governor the error of his ways.

"Fourteen states have ratified the federal suffrage amendment," points out Mrs. Hawkins, "and four more have called sessions this month, with more in October. The curious and depressing fact is that the eastern, middle western and southern states are ratifying faster than the pioneer suffrage states of the west."

"Western women are making every effort to induce their governors to call suffrage sessions that women may vote in the decisive elections of 1920. In the first place they do not wish the humiliation of coming in last. In the second place they believe they owe a debt to the women of the east who aided in the suffrage campaigns of all the western states, both with money and with workers."

"Will you do your bit?" Mrs. Hawkins finally asks: "Will you tell Governor Oleott that the women of Oregon desire action on suffrage now at the beginning, not at the end? Will you tell him why? This is not a partisan matter. It concerns all women. Whatever your affiliations, beliefs or politics, you can do this to help the women of 26 disfranchised states. Freely, without pledge or promise, Governor Oleott should take the action other forward looking executives are taking."

Not trusting to written words, women will make tours into western and eastern Oregon to reach women and legislators. Miss Vivian Pierce, organizer of the national woman's party, has charge of these trips. Miss Pierce will speak in western Oregon and confer with the legislators who are unwilling to become party to "the governor's terms," as legislators are beginning to call them.

"We cannot help but see the humor in the governor's terms," says Miss Emma Wald, another worker, "just as the legislators do. Governor Oleott is the only governor who has made 'terms' for suffragists and legislators. Governor Oleott is the only man in this country who has demanded that legislators request a session, in so many words, pay all their expenses and give him a pledge that they will consider nothing but suffrage no matter what the emergency."

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Leveh of Dallas are week end visitors in Salem. Mrs. Ralph White announces the opening of her senior class, Wednesday evening, September 17th, at the Coitille hall. Her juvenile class will open on October 4th with a pretty dance party. Both of these events are being looked forward to with a great deal of pleasurable anticipation by the members of the classes, as they are the fore runners of a series of similar affairs during the winter.

Mrs. S. H. Snyder and son David of Portland, have been guests of Mrs. E. Hofer at the latter's home, residence on South Commercial street. Mrs. Snyder is a former Salem resident and well known in the city.

Friends of Miss La Verne Kantner will be pleased to hear that she is doing nicely after her recent operation in a Seattle hospital.

Miss Laurel Jans is spending the week end with relatives and friends in Silverton. Mrs. S. Levy has as her guest, her son Ben Levy, who has come up from California for a brief visit with friends.

Mrs. Mell Hamilton, of the city, who is temporarily making her home in Portland, was a guest at the B. L. Beall residence during the past week. Mrs. Hamilton has just returned from a visit in California.

Mrs. J. F. Aeree after an extended visit at the home of Mrs. Addie Harra has returned to her home in Walnut Grove, California.

Miss Jean Belle is home after spending an enjoyable vacation with relatives and friends in Hood River and Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Haas will return tomorrow from a fortnight's vacation, one week of which was spent at Newport. The remainder of the time was passed in Portland where they were the guests of friends.

Mrs. Allan Bynon left Thursday for Pendleton where she and Captain Bynon will make their home. Mrs. Bynon is perhaps one of the most universally popular young women of Salem and her departure was regretted by a host of friends.

Miss Usona Haid, a popular young Salem maid, left Wednesday for Portland where she will take a three years training course in St. Vincent's hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jones have returned from a motor trip through the state of Washington. While there they visited in Yakima, Tacoma, Seattle and other Sound cities.

PROMINENT PORTLAND WOMAN CURED OF STOMACH TROUBLE

Portland, Or., June 14, 1919.

To Whom It May Concern: I have been a constant sufferer of stomach troubles for the past six years. Have suffered untold agony and misery and spent money doctoring with first class doctors. Have been told by them that I had ulcers, cancer and a growth in the stomach. Have tried so many kinds of patent medicines and remedies which helped others. Was on diets, lost my appetite, broke down in my nerves, couldn't eat, drink or sleep in a minute of peace--was a wreck in fact all over. I finally lost in weight from 160 pounds to scant 124 pounds. I lived and existed on acid, fresh, sweet milk to which the doctor ordered me to add one teaspoonful of malted milk in glass of milk I drank. I suffered no one knows but myself the unknown inward misery with that constant nagging, burning, throbbing sensation in my stomach. At times I would get perfectly despondent and earnestly pray to die. So over a year ago I heard of Dr. S. C. Stone's Stomach Powders and Bugs Relief and thought I'll take another chance, and thank God, my heavenly Father, it did and has proved my relief and help and I believe cure. I eat and drink anything I see I want and crave at any time. As I say it is over one year ago but I constantly keep the powders in my house and when I feel the least distressed or any one of my family or friends complain I am only too glad to mix them a dose and see how quickly they are relieved. I can't recommend it to highly, neither can I say by writing and make one know and understand the relief it has given me from suffering untold agony and I say to each and everyone who is suffering with indigestion and stomach troubles this powder is worth its weight in gold. Am only too glad to tell other sufferers what relieved me and truthfully believe will relieve them.
