This conference is one of a series being held in a number of centers in the northwest and along the coast by a group of well known Bible teachers who are in this way bringing to many localities the discussions of the great conference on Christian fundamentals held in Philadelphia last May. Salem is fortunate in being included in the itinerary of these leaders.

The sessions of the conference will be held in the First Baptist church, corner Marion and North Liberty streets, beginning Friday evening, September 19, that pertain to salvation from sin. A. Wells, pastor; Florence Wells, deaconess.

"HARD BOILED" SMITH ADMITS COGNOMEN SAYS RETURNED WAR VETERAN

Hillsboro, Or., Sept. 6.—(United Press) "They call me 'hard boiled,' and by God I am."

Grant Dorland, who has returned from overseas credits Lieutenant "Hard Boiled" Smith with that statement in France. Dorland is another veteran who has publicly gone on record with the statement that all soldiers who came in contact with Smith despised him. He says he has heard at least 50 returned soldiers say they would like to get "just one swing at Hard Boiled."

Dorland was a guard at a military prison not far from Paris. "Smith asked me one day, for a list of prisoners," said Dorland. "A photograph of a young lady fell to the ground when I brought out the list. Smith beat me to it and tore it to pieces."

Dorland forgot it was a case of officer and man. It was just a case of men with him then. He cracked Smith with his rifle butt, between the eyes. Of course he was court martialed, but the officers who tried the private probably carried pictures of their own. They held that Smith had transcended his authority and freed Dorland.

The girl, whose picture was insulted by "Hard Boiled" is now the wife of Dorland.

Among the recent arrivals of western troops in New York are the following: Williamette valley boys; Sergt. Herman C. Buckner, Hillsboro; Warren Fowler, Eugene; Perry B. Reinshman, Salem; Harold A. Taylor, McMinnville; Jas. E. Williams, Forest Grove; C. O. Olsen, Mt. Angel; Chas. Christensen, Willamette.

Average forty seven seven tenths per hour. Seventeen and one third miles per gallon gasoline. Motor wonderful. Cooled perfectly. No water placed in radiator en route. Passengers and luggage weighed almost eight hundred pounds. Car in perfect condition and ready to repeat. Strictly stock model. Officials of test, William K. FACTORY FURNISHES GROCERIES AT COST

Akron, O., Sept. 6.—Little green coupons are providing ammunition in a war which one Akron factory has declared on the high cost of living. In much the same manner as meal tickets are used, the coupons are utilized by the 10,000 employees of the factory in obtaining groceries at cost.

For redeeming the coupons, the Firestone Tire & Rubber Co. is now operating a grocery, opened recently. It carries a complete line of staple groceries, including butter and eggs. Rent, light and taxes will be paid by the company. Wages of personnel employed make up practically the only overhead expense item added to cost prices of goods sold, which are bought by the company in large lots. Purchasers must carry their coupons home.

The grocery, which is exclusively for Firestone employees, was opened recently as the result of their petition made at a meeting of factory foreman with H. S. Firestone a month ago. At that time Mr. Firestone promised to give the plan proposed careful consideration. As the result of an investigation, wherein the retail market in general and the cooperative store in particular were closely studied, he decided the company could not afford to operate considerably in overpricing the so-called high prices of foodstuffs, by operating the store. He at once ordered the plan to be carried out.

The company already has a building plan in operation by which an employee can acquire a new home at a price of over twenty per cent of the price that prevail in the open market.
