Local Y. M. Securing Jobs For Willamette Students

So great is going to be the demand for part-time work among the incoming students that the Y. M. C. A. members of Willamette University will make a canvass of all the employers of the city with a view to providing for as many of them as possible. Friends of the students and of the university will confer a great favor by co-operating with them in this effort. Those who can arrange any form of employment for boys and young men, to be done before and after study hours will assist the university authorities very much by notifying the office of the registrar. In the suit of the Salem Fruit Union against the Phez company, an application has been made to the court to have placed on the motion book for the coming term of court the hearing of the Fruit Union's demurrer to the defendant's amended answer. The Fruit Union demurred to the amended answer of the Phez company on the ground that the answer does not allege facts requiring the interdiction of a court of equity, and that it does not state facts sufficient to constitute a suit. Also that the answer of the Phez company does not state facts sufficient to constitute a defense or counter claim to the cause of action alleged in the complaint.

Notwithstanding the strong demand for houses to rent, no building permits have been taken out for the erection of houses, nor is there a disposition on the part of those who might build, to do anything to alleviate the rather serious condition in the way of building. A few days ago a party moved out of a very ordinary house in east Salem, and within a few hours after the house was vacated, a number of people began calling to investigate. After the house was rented, the fortunate renter was obliged to place a sign on the outside with the information that the house was not for rent, just to keep people from trying to get in to look the house over.

Army discharges have been filed the past few days by the following: A. H. Smith, S. H. Boebe, H. L. Riches, L. Laury, J. W. Easterburn and W. J. Waterhouse.

Awaiting the September term of the circuit court, department No. 1, with Judge Percy Kelly on the bench, are six prisoners in the county jail. Of the four automobile thieves, it is understood that three have confessed and are ready to plead guilty, while one will enter a plea of not guilty and stand trial. The two Kavanagh boys, in the county jail awaiting trial for robbing the Hartman jewelry store, have confessed and thought will plead guilty. The September term of the circuit court will convene next Monday.

part of the city, have not only been taking matters over, but yesterday prepared a petition to be presented to the city council, asking that North Fourth street from Market to the city limits be paved. They refer to the fact that the street is but a short distance from the gravel, and also to the fact that with the opening of the Valley Trucking company, employing 100 or more, north Salem property will be in demand. Therefore, they will come in a body next Monday evening to petition the city council that paving begin at once.
