

H. C. L. And Women's Apparel

The high cost of living, as it is effected by clothes is not so much in the price you pay as what you get for the price.

If your New Fall Coat Suit or Dress don't fit well, don't wear well, and don't give good service, they're expensive at any price.

You can reduce the H. C. L. by being very careful in making your selection and very particular about what you get for what you spend.

It pays to get all wool fabrics, high class workmanship and latest models. You'll get all these if you'll buy here.

But before buying look around and compare the garments we are offering with those offered elsewhere. We will be the gainers, for you will instantly recognize the savings to be effected through buying Coats, Suits, Dresses, Waists, Skirts, Millinery and Furs at Salem's greatest Women's Apparel Store.

Mexican Troop Mutiny Of No Significance Declares Cantu; Three Are Caught

Calexico, Cal., Sept. 11.—The mutiny of Cantu soldiers at Algodones, Lower California, September 8, in which four officers were killed, "has no significance at all," Governor E. Cantu, Lower California, declared today in a statement to the United Press. The governor had been asked regarding reports that the mutiny was part of a Villa or Carranza conspiracy to overthrow him. Governor Cantu also revealed that one of the three leaders in the mutiny had been captured and he expects the early capture of the others. "The unhappy event of the early morning of the eighth instant in Algodones has no significance at all," he has not disturbed the tranquility of this district of Lower California.

Pershing To Visit Roosevelt Grave At Oyster Bay Today
 New York, Sept. 11.—General Pershing goes to Oyster Bay today to render homage at the grave of Theodore Roosevelt, who, when president, promoted Pershing from captain to brigadier general. The commander in chief will call on Mrs. Roosevelt at Sagamore Hill. Aside from this, Pershing will rest during the day and visit with old time comrades. In the evening he will attend a meeting of fourteen thousand veterans, members of the American Legion, at Madison Square Garden.

CAPTURED TROPHIES FEATURE OF EXHIBIT

Material Taken On Battlefields Of France To Be Shown At Fair.

One of the biggest features of the United States government exhibits, to be shown at the Oregon State Fair will be made up of trophies and other enemy material captured on the battlefields of France by American soldiers. The captured articles, including almost everything from a big trench mortar to a canteen, have just been brought to this country and have never before been on exhibition. With them will be shown military and naval equipment of the American forces, in addition to displays from other departments of the government.

The character of the display of captured material is indicated by the following partial list:
 Light and heavy machine guns, anti-aircraft machine guns, rifles, small arms ammunition,grenade throwers, trench mortars, hand grenades, helmets of various kinds, sabers, officers' and enlisted men's canteens, shells and cartridge cases of various sizes, trench periscopes, gas shells, smoke hand grenades, smoke pots, anti-gas alarm devices, field telephones and switchboards, signal lamps, breast reels and trench lanterns.

Visitors to the exhibit will have an opportunity to compare the German equipment with that used by the American fighters. Among the articles furnished by the war department of the United States government are the following:
 Field gun and mortar, trench mortar, light and heavy machine guns, aircraft gun, rifle, trench helmets, hand and rifle grenades, dummy cartridges and drop bombs, complete set of infantry equipment figures wearing different uniforms of the army, including the winter uniform supplied to troops on duty in Russia, live carrier pigeons, some of which saw service on the firing line in France, national and regimental colors, insignia and campaign badges, wireless telephone apparatus, and various other equipment from the Ordnance Department, Quartermaster Corps, Signal Corps, Engineer Corps, Air Service and Medical Department of the Army.

One of the feature exhibits is a collection of 32 enlarged photographs, selected from 20,000 taken by Army photographers in France.

The navy will exhibit two complete exhibition models of fighting ships, and five small models showing the application of camouflage. Other naval exhibits will be radio telephones, torpedoes and their trucks, machine guns and rifles guns of the kind that were mounted on submarine chasers, Y-gun for launching depth charges, projectiles of various sizes and winter clothing including a set of the kind worn by submariners. The Marine Corps also will exhibit a large number of articles of equipment.

Other exhibits will be shown from the Department of Commerce and the Department of Labor. Altogether the government exhibit is expected to be of great aid in bringing the public in closer touch with the activities and achievements of the government.

The fair will open September 22 and last a week.

LIBERTY NOW!

For Itching Torture
 There is one remedy that seldom fails to stop itching torture and relieve skin irritation and that makes the skin soft, clear and healthy.
 Any druggist can supply you with Zemo, which generally overcomes all skin diseases. Eczema, itch, pimples, rashes, blackheads in most cases give way to Zemo. Frequently, minor blemishes disappear over night. Itching usually stops instantly. Zemo is a safe, antiseptic liquid, clean, easy to use and dependable. It costs only 35c; an extra large bottle, $1.00. It will not stain, is not greasy or sticky and is positively safe for tender, sensitive skins.
 The E. W. Rose Co., Cleveland, O.

and Mark Sullivan, one of the most noted of war lecturers.
 The young promoters, headed by Bartholomew as manager, have engaged the armory and will put on the first number some time next month. In the meantime they will launch a campaign of solicitation throughout the city with a view to selling 2000 season tickets, the price of which will be made so low that they will be almost on a par with the moving-picture shows as to the individual attractions.

Capital Post Of American Legion After New Members
 As soldiers, sailors and marines are not voluntarily joining Capital Post No. 9, American Legion, in numbers in proportion to those who were in the service from Marion county, the Post will put on a membership drive. Robin D. Daw is chairman of the membership committee and Ivan G. McDaniel has been appointed campaign manager. Although it is estimated that from 1500 to 1700 men are entitled to membership in the American Legion from Marion county, as yet scarcely 100 have joined as charter members. Due to the fact that the state convention will be held in Portland Sept. 17 and 18, an effort will be made in the campaign to bring the membership to what the county is entitled to, in order that it may have a larger representation in the convention.

STUDENTS TO CONDUCT LYCEUM COURSE HERE

Willamette Boys To Present High Class Talent During Winter.
 The success of the regular summer chautauqua course in Salem is evidence that the public has acquired a taste for the higher class of entertainment and cultural lectures. Hence it is gratifying to note that three of the live wires among the university students—Messrs. Bartholomew, McKittrick and Storey—have booked for the winter season one of the brightest lyceum courses to be obtained in the country. This is a series of seven attractions taken from the Menzies and Ellison-White systems. This will include the Chicago Recital Company, saxophone artists, soloists and improvisators; Katharine Carroll Smith Concert company, vocalist and instrumentalists; Bicketts Glee club, singers and entertainers; Cecil Fanning, the world-famous baritone; Frank Bohn, noted lecturer on reconstruction problems; Frank S. Regan, cartoonist and lecturer.

 Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 11.—The "spud souse" is with us. Its kick is almost fatal. Twenty men were made seriously ill by drinking whiskey, the base of which was potato mash.

Can Peaches And Reduce Living Costs Later On Says Local Fruit Expert

From the standpoint of household economy and also of local welfare, a prominent fruit man suggests that the canning of peaches is about the most economical thing that can be done. It would also help out the situation in this section of the valley, as there is an abundant supply of peaches.

it is shown that it is now more economical to can peaches than any fruit or berry during the entire season. One bushel now can be purchased at from $1.50 to $2 a bushel and on this estimate there has been nothing so cheap this season, he said.

Basing figures on this price, peaches cost from 2½ cents to 3 cents a pound for canning. When the strawberry season was on the retail price figured from 10 to 12 cents a pound and loganberries also at from 10 to 12 cents a pound, placing a low estimate.

The evergreen blackberry has cost the householder from 8 to 10 cents a pound, compared to the 2½ and 3 cents for the finest peaches. Red raspberries for canning cost on an average of 10 to 12 cents a pound and the black raspberries a little more.

Judging from the high price at which apples will sell, this same authority says that they will cost almost as much as peaches for canning. Even pears will cost more than peaches.

Taking into consideration the prices of all fruits and berries available for canning, and the special value of canned peaches, this same authority on canned goods urges every housekeeper to can to the limit, all towards reducing the cost of living and eating during the coming winter.
