

Backache only a Symptom

"It Seems as Though my Back Would Break."

This is a common expression among women, yet they toil on day after day heedless of the significance of this distressing symptom.

Backache is often a warning of some inward trouble that requires attention, and which unless relieved will sooner or later declare itself in more serious ailments.

If it is caused by female derangement Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is what you need. It quickly asserts its curative powers in all those peculiar ailments of women.

For more than thirty years this good old fashioned root and herb medicine has been restoring American women to health.

The Splendid Recovery of Mrs. Coventry

Newark, N. J.—"The doctor said I had organic trouble and treated me for several weeks. At times I could not walk at all and I suffered with my back and legs so I often had to stay in bed. I suffered off and on for eight years. Finally I heard that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was a good medicine, and I tried it with splendid effect. I can now do my housework and my washing.

I have recommended your Vegetable Compound and Blood Medicine and three of my friends are taking it to their advantage. You may use my name for a testimonial."—Mrs. THERESA COVENTRY, 75 Burnett St., Newark, N. J.

Mrs. Hunt tells how it helped her Detroit, Mich.—"I was in a general run-down condition, was very nervous and tired, had backache and other troubles. I suffered for several years, was not able to work at times and tried doctor's medicine with no results. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised, and after taking it a short time I was much better. I am still taking it myself and giving it to my daughter, and am glad to recommend Vegetable Compound at anytime."—Mrs. M. E. Hunt, 171 Davison Ave.

The Royal Neighbors of America is a beneficiary order that while entirely independent of the Modern Woodmen of America, is a sister organization, and the two orders work together in all social and fraternal undertakings whenever possible. In Oregon it has nearly 4000 members and over 70 local "camps." It is nearly 30 years of age and for over a quarter of a century the order has been a benefit order. Its finances are on a firm foundation and its new rates are enabling it to accumulate a surplus for a rainy day.

The Royal Neighbors and the Modern Woodmen are uniting to hold open house in Salem at the state fair and are arranging a special booth in the main building, which will be operated by both orders from Monday morning, September 22, to Saturday evening, September 27. All visiting neighbors and inquiring friends will be welcome and any aid possible will be extended and information will be freely furnished concerning any activity on the fair grounds. Special committees will be in attendance night and day. There will be refreshments served and special parties can secure accommodations for dinners, luncheons or suppers. This is a new venture in the fraternal field and every member of both orders throughout the state is interested in its successful outcome.

On Thursday evening a class adoption of the Royal Neighbors of America will be held in the M. W. A. hall, and all visiting neighbors are invited to attend.

At a quiet wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Busick, 174 South Cottage street, Miss Grace McDonald became the bride of George R. Cernik, Monday evening, September 8. Reverend Leland W. Porter officiated at the ceremony which took place in the presence of a few friends and immediate relatives. The bride wore a stylish tulle of brown and carried a bouquet of Cesi Bruner roses and fern.

Mrs. Cernik is the daughter of Mrs. Randa McDonald and a sister of Mrs. William Busick. She is very popular in the city where she attended the local high school. Mr. Cernik is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Cernik and well known in Salem.

The young couple left immediately for a short honeymoon in Portland after which they will return to Salem to make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Laycock opened their home Saturday to a large number of friends and neighbors in the Popcorn district, when an informal reception was held for the boys of that vicinity who have returned from service in the army, navy and marine corps. The house had been appropriately decorated, a color scheme of red, white and blue being carried out. An enjoyable program was presented and delicious refreshments served. Special guests of the evening were John Cavitt, Robert Adams and Charles Adams who have returned during the past two weeks and all of whom saw active fighting during the late war. About 150 guests attended the reception.

President Emil Enna of the Society of Oregon Composers announces that the first meeting of the society will be held tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in the assembly hall of the Portland hotel, Portland. Anyone living in the state of Oregon who composes music is invited to be present.

State Librarian Segregates Records Of Oregon Soldiers

State Librarian Cornelia Marvin has succeeded in segregating the mass of data from the soldier records of Oregon, and finds there are 12,508 records filed thus far out of the 24,000 enlisted men of the state. The list of men who died in camps or at the front is not yet made up. It is hoped that through the American Legion and the War Camp Community Service a great many more names can be secured so that there will be at least a complete list of those who saw actual service, though it is desirable to have all names recorded.

Prospect Of Record Fair Crowds Complicate Task Of Handling All Guests

The housing and rooming proposition is really becoming an acute one in the city, especially now that reservations are being made for the state fair. Both the Marion and the Bligh have fully been reserved and now it is a question with these hotels of find accommodations for their guests. According to the number of reservations already asked for, the crowd at the fair will be a record breaker. Charles Miller, manager of the Marion, said already he has had calls for more than 200 than he can accommodate and that if the hotels of the city are to care for the strangers in the city next week, the people who have one or two rooms must be willing to offer them to guests. On other occasions, many people rented rooms, but it seems that with the scarcity in houses and the large number of Willamette university students coming and also those arranging for the high school, there are not the usual rooms to rent. Hence with the assurance of a record breaking crowd, there

Celebration Of Mexican Independence Day Chilled By Officials In Arizona

Phoenix, Ariz., Sept. 16.—(United Press.)—Celebration in Arizona of Mexican independence day today was limited and chilled by the supervision of state officials, as a result of action by Governor Campbell of Arizona. The governor declared that he deemed the celebration of the Mexican holiday in any of the border states "very imprudent," owing to unrest and feeling over the Mexican situation.

The governor acted after receiving a protest from Mexican Consul H. Valdez at Clifton, Ariz., against the order of the county sheriff forbidding any speech making excepting in the English language. High feeling at Clifton was made more intense by a recent roundup of 15 alleged anarchists who are now in jail there.
