When Buster Brown paid us his last visit, he left a tremendous large stock of Growing Girls' and Boys' Shoes. This was more than a year ago. You can now buy these shoes for less money than Buster himself could sell them for. If you wish another pair of the good old Blue Ribbon quality, at a price that is so generously kind to the purse, don't put it off another day because your size might then be gone.

Rome, Sept. 18 .- (United Press.) --'Calm and harmony'' in dealing with the situation which the poet Gabrielle D'Annunzio has created in occupying Fiume, was urged today by Premier Nit-

"The moment is grave," he said, "and it is improper to add difficulties to the situation by useless excite-nent."

Nitti was speaking before the cham-er of deputies. The reply of D'Annanzio to the pre-lamation that every soldier refusing enve Fiume would be considered an en cmy of Italy, has been received here. "An infamous order, worthy of vile overnment," was D'Annunzio's exression. He reiterated that he would cfend to the death.

The city of Fiume is bedeeked with flags and placards are posted in promi-nent places bearing the inscription long live King Victor Emmanuel." Italian citizens go about the streets wearing brassards reading "Fiume or leath!"

Admiral Casanova, aboard the Dant Alighieri, hoisted his flag, in a futile signal to his officers and men to rejoin the vessel and leave the harbor. They refused to obey, according to advices nuble to maintain discipline.

Nitti told the chamber that strong language in the communique of last. Saturday was necessitated by the atti-tude of publications in other countries,
