

All Around Town

CITY NEWS

Dr. F. L. Utter and family left yesterday for a week's stay at Newport. Dan Welch of Astoria was calling on Governor Olcott this morning. Charles Edward Brown, director of public works of the Philippine Islands was in Salem Monday, and while here paid his respects to Governor Olcott. Twenty five violin students, a part of Miss Elizabeth Levy's ensemble club, will appear at the new auditorium at the state fair, Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. Try Northern Flour. It's a Bear. Every sack guaranteed. At your grocers.

A group of uniformed government representatives arrived in the city today from Portland and have gone out to the fair grounds to make final arrangements for the installation of the government exhibit of war trophies and educational material. This promises to be one of the most attractive details of the entire fair. Wanted—Girl to work in parlor, Apply The Spa. We have a few 1920 Ford chassis left. You can fit them with bug or delivery bodies. Valley Motor Co. 9-26 We can furnish the new 1920 Ford with express body. Try one on your prime crop. Valley Motor Co. 9-26 Dr. L. F. Griffith, superintendent of the state hospital, is back from Pendleton where last week he attended the annual session of the state Hygiene Society, incidentally looking in on the Roundup.

Wanted—Girl to work in parlor, Apply The Spa. J. W. Church of Portland, head of the grain inspection department of the public service commission, was a state capitol business visitor, Saturday. A. C. Marsters, president of the state fair board, was a business visitor here Saturday, superintending the finishing touches. Ben F. Worsley, a familiar figure around the state capitol during the sessions of the state legislature, is here today calling on state officials and looking in on the state fair. Homer H. Smith has recently received information from insurance headquarters in Portland that the 10 per cent surcharge which has been levied upon all fire insurance policies during the past year or so will be removed at an early date. This applies to all policies with the exception of automobiles.

We buy Liberty bonds. 205 Oregon building. Artificial teeth, have expert plate man, with over 35 years experience, at my office. Dr. D. X. Beecher, dentist, 302 U. S. Nat. bank bldg. Otha Jane, the eight months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cooper of 1795 North Front street, died at her home this morning. The funeral services will be held at the home Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock and will be conducted by the Rev. George F. Holt. Burial will be in the Odd Fellows cemetery. State Fair Exhibitors Notice—Order your signs and show cards now. The best work at reasonable prices. Phone 756 or call Seley at 417 Masonic bldg. Notice: All members of the Elks entertainment committee are requested to meet at the Elks lodge promptly at 7 o'clock Tuesday evening. Business of the utmost importance. Wharton L. West, chairman committee. Thomas B. Jackson, who died in Salem Sept. 16, often recalled to his friends the fact that his father was a civil engineer and that as their home was near Mount Vernon, Virginia, his father had frequently used the compass owned by George Washington. And not only had his father used George Washington's compass, but he himself had often handled it. Mr. Jackson was personally acquainted with many of the famous men of Virginia during the days before the war. When he was born, Thomas Jefferson and John Adams had been dead only six years.

The marriage is announced of Floyd Wilson, a former resident of Salem, and Miss Myrtle Bruce of Gladstone Friday of last week. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Bruce of Gladstone. Mr. Wilson has recently been living at Mount Pleasant, but will make his home in Oregon City and will be employed by the Hawley Pulp & Paper company. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Wilson of Mount Pleasant. The members of the Epworth League of the First Methodist church gave a delightful reception and social in the church lecture room last night as a means of welcoming all new comers in the university as well as making the acquaintance of other young people in the city. The chief feature of the evening was a "Trip to Coney Island" in which guests were taken in groups in a circuit of Coney Island attractions ranged about the room. This was a means of stringing up a vast amount of merriment. In lieu of the famous "hot dogs" of the noted resort the guests were regaled with ice cream. CARD OF THANKS Words cannot express our thanks to our many friends and neighbors for their kindness and help through the sickness and death of our dear baby. Also for the many beautiful flowers. There is a warm place in our hearts for you all. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cooper and family.

SALEM AUTO RADIATOR SHOP Radiators, fenders and gas tanks repaired. Tractor radiators a specialty. Ford radiators for sale. 190 E. 12th St., Salem, Or.

OREGON CHARLES RAY IN "BILL HENRY" VAUDEVILLE PATHE NOW W. T. HIGDON & CO. Undertakers 252 North High Street

J. A. Davis, former county assessor of Wasco county, was a state capitol visitor Monday.

J. A. Churchill, state superintendent of instruction, left Monday morning for John Day, Grant county, where he will attend the county teachers' institute.

Joe Singer of Portland, sergeant at arms in the house of representatives for many sessions past, is a state fair visitor this week.

C. C. Scott, deputy state forester, left this morning for Clatsop county on a tour of inspection.

C. H. Gram, state commissioner of labor, left Monday afternoon for Washington, D. C., here he will confer with the head of the federal census bureau with a view to arranging for cooperation between the federal bureau and the state labor bureau in the 1920 census.

J. Sylvesto

Premier Accordion Player of the coast. With Cole McElroy's Jazz Band tonight and every night this week at the Armory. Sylvesto is a real artist of rare ability and has entertained thousands of people throughout this country. Mr. McElroy has secured Sylvesto at a great expense to entertain the visitors and the Salem public during the state fair. Dancing free from eight till nine o'clock.

We have the new 1920 Ford with express or panel side delivery bodies for immediate delivery. Valley Motor Co. 9-26

Members of Tommasino's famous Italian band have arrived in the city and received a hearty hand from the spectators at the races this afternoon. The band was last heard in Eugene where it offered several concerts at the Lane county fair.

G. W. Stokes, H. H. Pomeroy and G. W. Allen, deputy state fire marshals, returned Monday morning from Pendleton where they had been doing duty during the Roundup in order to prevent a repetition of the recent disastrous garage fire at Klamath Falls.

The state treasurer's office this morning completed the sale of $2,000,000 worth of state highway bonds to Carson & Earles of Seattle. This is a part of the $10,000,000 bond issue authorized by the last legislature for construction of good roads in Oregon.

Miss Fera Hobbs, private secretary to former Governor Oswald West, was a state capitol visitor, Monday. Miss Hobbs who spent a year in Paris as head of the casualty section of the hospital home service of the American Red Cross, wears two gold stripes on her sleeve.

The Industrial (Capital) Normal begins the fall term next Monday, new classes in bookkeeping, typewriting and shorthand, both Gregg and Pitman will be formed. Grade students from the 9th to the 12th will be received. Address J. J. Kraps, Salem, Or.

That there will be a great many persons from Silveston attending the state fair, is the opinion of Homer Rowling, head of the Ford shop in that town, who is at the fair grounds this week in charge of the Fordson tractor display. Mr. Rowling, who formerly resided in Eugene, was chosen a few months ago to attend the Ford school in Detroit where he studied the car in detail.

Among the prominent visitors at the fair grounds, is E. H. Farrington, dean of the school of agriculture at the University of Wisconsin. Dean Farrington who formerly was an instructor of A. H. Lea, secretary of the state fair association, will be one of the judges of the dairy exhibit.

GIRLS The newest complexion fad is derwill. It instantly beautifies the complexion, whitens the skin and astonishes all who try it. Never be without it. Derwill gives you a rosy peach like skin, which everybody will rave about. It's absolutely harmless. Get it today. Druggists refund the money if it fails. See large announcement soon to appear in this paper.

Elizabeth Edwards was granted a divorce this morning from Leroy Hollis Edwards on a charge of cruelty, and given the custody of their son. They were married in 1914. Mr. Edwards is in the steamship service and is now in England.

In the suit of Frances Foley against the Southern Pacific railroad, the attorney for the plaintiff has filed a motion asking that the name of Walker D. Hines, director general of railroads be substituted for that of the Southern Pacific railroad.

Mr. Webb and family arrived in the city this morning from California. He has just recently been given his discharge from service overseas. He has been elected principal of the Liberty school which will begin Sept. 29.

Senator Alex LaFollette, the peach king of the northwest, said this morning that his crop would run about 18,000 boxes this year. On account of the fine quality, a large part of the crop has been sold at a price in excess of the market quotations. A display of his finest peaches may be seen at the state fair in the Marion county exhibit.

"Looks like it will be a record breaker," observed Donald J. Peenaugh of Portland, as he drove through the city at the fair grounds this morning. Mr. Peenaugh, who will have charge of one of the tractor exhibits, is a student of the University of Oregon and expects to return to Eugene next week. Driving down in his machine, Mr. Peenaugh declared he made excellent time.

A number of schools not located in the fruit picking districts opened their doors today for the beginning of the fall term, although the majority have deferred the opening day until after the state fair. Schools beginning today are Aumsville, Marion, Aurora, Sidney, Mt. Angel, Ray Bell, Howell and Donald.

S. B. Elliott, vice president of the Salem Bank of Commerce, is home from a flying visit made to his former home at Moberly, Mo. He says that country has a record breaking corn crop and that evidences of prosperity may be seen on every hand. In Missouri improved farms with modern residences are selling as high as $4000 an acre, while over in Illinois, farms with fine homes and barns are averaging from $600 to $700 an acre. Through Montana and Idaho he noted the effect of dry weather and general poor crop conditions.

Mabel Clair Bogynske has brought suit for a divorce from John Bogynske. They were married in Salem May 5, 1918, and within two months after their marriage, she alleges he struck her and that he was exacting and domineering. That later he threatened to kill her, throw her in the river, place her in an insane asylum and also send her to the penitentiary. On these grounds she asks for the divorce.

In order to give the 60 employees of the four banks in the city an opportunity to attend the state fair during the afternoons, it was announced this morning that all banks in the city will close at 12 o'clock, noon, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

U. G. Boyer, county clerk, who is visiting in the east accompanied by Mrs. Boyer, writes his friends here that he traveled with the G. A. R. veterans as far as Columbus, Ohio, and that he expects to spend a few weeks visiting relatives whom he has not seen for a generation.

The body of Mrs. Harriet Brown, who died in the city Friday, was today forwarded to Siletz for burial by Webb & Clough. The body was accompanied by a son, Lewis Klamath.

In addition to the four extra policemen placed on duty today, Mrs. Etta Groves has been appointed to serve as matron at the Oregon Electric depot. Miss Maxwell has been placed in charge of the women's comfort station at High and State streets.

Fred Legg, architect, went to Portland this morning to supervise the laying of the foundations of the new building to be erected by Vick Bros. to serve as a warehouse and headquarters for the Oregon agency of the Fordson tractor. The building is located on the east side.

Milton L. Meyers, who fell and seriously fractured his right shoulder about six weeks ago, was down town for the first time Saturday since the accident. Due to the seriousness of the injury, it will be several weeks yet before he can resume his duties in the Meyers department store.

At the golf links yesterday, the privilege of entering the elimination contest for the president's cup presented by Homer H. Smith, the following scores were made: T. B. Kay 78, E. D. Baker, 79, S. E. Edwards 79, C. Robertson 79, Connell Dyer 80, William Lachen 80, John Farrar 81, James Young 84, Carl Gabrielson 83, Homer H. Smith 83, H. H. Olinger 83, James Young 84, Oliver Locke 84, Chester Cox 87, Sam K. Koser 88 and Fred Thielson 88. The first elimination contest will be played next Sunday, Sept. 28.

If an auto is stolen, there is no use in telling your troubles to the police unless some definite information is given. Chief Varney says. As soon as a car is reported stolen, the police telephone the license number, name of owner and engine number, to police headquarters in neighboring towns. Saturday a man came to the police station and reported his Ford stolen, but refused to give either his name or the license number of his car.

The vanguard of the army of fair visitors began arriving this morning, the Oregon Electric trains running six cars, all crowded and behind time. The password at the hotels is "nothing doing." They are full to the roof and in addition to their own space have listed several hundred rooms in private houses for the week.

There was a lively "Hello Bill" time in the university gymnasium Saturday evening when the Y. M. C. A. members staged their annual "stagg mix" with a view to making new comers feel at home. The boys put on a brief program of "one thing or another," indulged in cider and doughnuts by way of refreshments, and enjoyed themselves immensely.

Tomorrow - Wednesday "THE HOUR OF DECISION HAS COME" KATHRYN ADAMS - FRANK MAYO - J. BARNEY SHERRY "A Little Brother of the Rich" PREPARE yourself for one of the finest treats of the season. Prepare to see this wonderful stage success - "A LITTLE BROTHER OF THE RICH," written by Joseph Medill Patterson, whose sensational play was the talk of millions of people in every representative city throughout America. A triply fascinating story of Society and the footlights that will send you away from the theatre in thrills of joy. You simply cannot afford to miss it. OREGON

Look for this Lux window in your own neighborhood. It tells you the stores that can always supply you with Lux. WATCH for this Lux window! The grocer, the druggist—your own dealer is showing these Lux pictures. They tell you where to go for Lux—where you can always find it. You can trust your daintiest things to Lux—your filmy georgette, the pale orchid organdie that's the pride of your heart, your nicest silk "undies", baby's little woollens—nothing is too delicate for the pure Lux suds. There's no harsh rubbing of soap on fine fabrics and then the rub-rub-rub again to get soap and dirt out. Lux is so quick, so easy to use—and it won't hurt anything pure water alone won't injure—won't cause any color to run that pure water alone won't cause to run. Once you have found out how easily Lux keeps your nicest things dainty and sweet, you will not want to be without it. Tell your dealer to keep you supplied. You will find his name listed below.—Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass. September 22 to 27 is Lux window display week. During this week progressive dealers throughout the country will feature this Lux Display in their windows. dealers featuring Lux in their windows this week. BUSICK'S WELLS BROS. GILBERT GROCERY NO-VARY GROCERY PEOPLES CASH STORE DAUB & SON BOTH GROCERY CO. PERRY'S DRUG STORE LEBOLD & COMPANY LEW PARK GROCERY FOSTER & BAKER

1c Word Class Ad Will Sell It