Alderman H. H. Vandervort was found traveling a little too fast in an auto yesterday. Speed Cop Moffit, being no respecter of persons, caught up with the alderman and had a few words on the subject of city ordinances. There was also considerable business last evening in warning people to be a little more careful in seeing that the tail lights of their autos were shining a little brighter. It is understood that 46 autos with tail lights of low visibility were stopped.

Speaking of rains in September and the old saying that it always rained state fair week, it may be stated that so far the pessimist has been wrong, as there has been no rain in Salem since September 12 excepting one night when there was barely enough to make a record of one tenth of an inch. September is just a little behind on its rain record as there has been only 2.26 inches and this all fell between the 4th and 12th of the month.

Stenographers who take pride in their work always want a Royal typewriter because their efforts show to best advantage, and another reason is they can turn out more work with less effort on the Royal than any other typewriter made. For sale by Graham & Wells, Corvallis, Or. 1f

MEET ME AT MEYERS

ADITORIAL

What do you think of the foreigner who comes to this country, enjoys its liberties and advantages—gets his big salaries and ships his money back to his "fatherland?"

How do you feel toward the Chinaman who comes here earns his money, spends as little as possible and ships the balance to China?

You condemn them in harsh and pointed terms—they are unfair, not worthy of being taken into our citizenship. But—what about those who live in the most beautiful city on God's footstool—Salem—the cheapest city for living in America—who earn their living here, but who spend it elsewhere, sending away for their purchases, are they worthy of being classed as "citizens?"

"I had hoped to be back with the boys, but it will be impossible," Risley explained. He and Mrs. Risley will return to Oregon City tonight.

At the fair this week is Mrs. W. W. Branstetter, wife of a Eugene mortician. After spending yesterday visiting the state fair, the Radinators, representing the Eugene chamber of commerce, returned to Eugene last night.

Judge Harry Bown, of the county court of Lane county, arrived in Salem this morning to visit the fair. Judge Bown's home is in Eugene.
