HOLDING its place among the important social events of the week, the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Magnus was celebrated yesterday at their beautiful country home near Salem.

The house was artistically decorated with autumnal flowers, and the handsomely appointed table at which the sumptuous wedding dinner was served, was centered with variegated bloom.

Mr. and Mrs. Magnus are among the oldest residents of the country and are well and favorably known both in Salem and Portland, and the guest list for the affair included a number of prominent persons from both cities.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Magnus, P. G. Magnus, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Magnus, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Magnus, Mr. and Mrs. I. I. Parker and son Paul, Mr. and Mrs. Jap Longcor and son Jap, Jr., Leland Ross, Elmer Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Westfall, Mr. and Mrs. Joe McKee and daughter Vera, Mrs. J. W. Dryden, George Wiggins, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Denison, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. McKee and Mrs. M. L. Permenter.

Organized under the name of "Beta Chi" a group of fifteen girl students of Willamette university have formed a club, and rented the Fleming residence on Court street.

Members of the club are Velma Baker, Hartline, Washington, Vera Wise, Granger, Washington, Evelyn Gordon, Portland; Eva Parrett, Newberg; Rita Hobbs, Walla Walla; Bernice Knuts, Brownsville, seniors; Sybil Smith, Vancouver, Washington; Myrtle Mason, Boise, Idaho; Ruth Wise, Granger, Washington, juniors; Mildred Brown, Outlook, Washington; Eva Roberts, Cove; Grace Collins, Portland; Laura Ruggless, Vancouver, Washington, sophomores, and Marjorie Plogel, Portland, freshman.

Officers for 1919-20 are Velma Baker, president; Eva Parrett, manager and Bernice Knuts, secretary.

The appearance at the state fair of Miss Elizabeth Levy's violin ensemble composed of twenty five of her students was record breaking as it over shadowed any previous concert. They were very attractively dressed and rendered their numbers in fine style, keeping in perfect bowing and the three part harmony of the instruments sung out the sections. Salem is proud to claim Miss Levy for their own for her brilliant violin selections accompanied by Tommasini's famous Italian band of New York were enthusiastically received at the horse show, held in the stadium Wednesday and Thursday evening, Friday evening her rendition at the auditorium completely captivated her audience and she was recalled four times.

Mrs. Ralph White returned yesterday from Portland where she attended the state conference of dancing professors at Christensen academy, under the direction of Professor Christensen. This was held in connection with the national convention in New York city for the benefit of those who found it inconvenient to go east. A great many topics of interest were discussed and the dancing public is now made aware of the welcome news that the quick steps will no longer be in vogue, and that the old fashioned waltz, with a few pretty variations added, has come into its own again. The foxtrot and one step will also be fashionable, the short quick steps, found so objectionable by the majority of dancers, will be done away with entirely.

The principal object of both the national and state conventions was to standardize the methods of teaching, and an effort will be made by all those who attended to use a uniform method of instruction in the future.

Mrs. H. P. White was hostess at a pretty party Saturday, honoring the third birthday anniversary of her little daughter, Helen Katherine. The dainty color scheme of pink and white which was used in the decorations, was further brought out in the white birthday cake with its three pink candles. Games and stories and a delicious luncheon filled the afternoon hours. The little folk attending were Mary Frances Henderson, Eleanor Luper, Grace White, Homer Ingrey, James Luper and Elbert White.

Miss Birden Myers of the state normal commission has returned from a vacation in Atlanta, Georgia. She brought with her as her guest, her sister, Mrs. George Blower, who will remain in the city for a visit of indefinite length. Mrs. Blower will be remembered as Effie Myers, formerly of Salem and widely known in the social circles of this city.

Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Williamson of Portland were fair week visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Myers. Dr. and Mrs. Williamson were formerly residents of this city.

Miss Beryl Holt had as her guest over the week end, Miss Madeline Rawlings of Albany.

Mrs. R. W. Starr of Brownsville was the guest of her sister, Mrs. C. P. Bishop during the past week.

The following is an extract from an account appearing in the Sunday Oregonian which will, no doubt, be of unlimited interest to club women of Salem. The entire article is replete with useful suggestions, and the last two paragraphs are in direct keeping with the idea of the membership drive which the Salem Woman's club is making an issue for this year.

"The Portland Woman's club has endorsed Miss Mattie Beatty of Salem for president of the Oregon federation of women's clubs. The Portland Woman's club held its first meeting of the season in the ballroom of the Multnomah hotel Friday at 2 o'clock, with the newly elected president, Mrs. Charles Runyon, in the chair.

"In her address, Mrs. Runyon said: "In this, the beginning of a new club year, we may look forward to a period of reconstruction when club women should strive for a clearer and better understanding of problems and conditions.

"In the relaxing of the war activities in which members of this club and the immense number who gave their time to such faithful and untiring voluntary war work, the question is asked, 'Will these women want to stop and stay at home? Or will they want to put to some use this energy and force, this cooperation, which should be directed to needs which vitally affect the welfare of our country?'

"They were asked this at the victory conference called in Washington recently.

"Though no one dare to prophesy, we will assume that these club women will not be content with being entertained, but will want their club to be used in some way for service. It would be criminal, indeed, to come out of this without saving any of this cooperative spirit that our common patriotism inspired in us.

"To make our club a factor in the community we must stand for something worth while, and I repeat, we must increase our membership with energetic women.

"If every member would pledge herself that she would bring in at least one application this year we would double our membership with little effort. Will you do that much for your club?'

Physicians were at his bedside constantly during the night. They said the mayor had been badly beaten about the chest.

In his delirium the mayor moaned continually: "You shall not take him." The mob last night broke into pawnshops and hardware stores to obtain firearms and ammunition. They overpowered every policeman on the streets. The police did not resort to weapons. They were easily overpowered and usually surrendered their clubs and guns without resistance.

The mob set fire to the courthouses when it was unable to break past Sheriff Clark and his deputies. Some one on the first floor. Police extinguished obtained gasoline which was set on fire all weeks.

Major General Leonard Wood telegraphed Mayor Smith from Bismarck, N. D., this morning that he will arrive in Omaha at 9:20 Tuesday morning to take personal charge of operations. Wood also said that he has ordered additional troops from Camp Grant, Ill., and Camp Funston, Kansas.

That a riot spirit still prevails is shown from numerous street fight between whites and blacks. Troops at Twenty-fourth and Lake streets in the heart of the negro district were fired on by negroes just before daybreak this morning. They returned the fire. No one was injured.

Baker Sent Troops.
Washington, Sept. 29.—The troops rushed to Omaha to take charge of the situation there went on the personal order of Secretary of War Baker, transmitted by long distance telephone to the commander at Fort Omaha Sunday night on request of Senator Hitchcock. It was stated here today.

After Nebraska authorities had spent several hours in trying to unravel war department red tape and get troops, Hitchcock was appealed to and he got Baker to telephone for immediate dispatch of the troops.

At the same time Hitchcock telephoned the commander at Fort Omaha to have the troops ready and send as

This is but one of thousands of the same kind of letters received by Dr. Chas. A. Tyrell of New York, the inventor of the "J. B. L. Cascade."

By a purely natural process of propriety using warm water, the "J. B. L. Cascade" removes all the poisonous waste from the lower intestine, which physicians agree is the cause of 95 per cent of all human ailments.
