THE first game of elimination series for the women's trophy was played at the golf links of the Hillside Country club last Sunday. A large number of women attended, the following being the victors, Mrs. Errol Kay, Mrs. E. Gillingham, Mrs. John Farrar, Mrs. Ed Baker, Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Mrs. Oliver Locke, Miss Elizabeth Lord and Miss Driver.

In the second elimination for the gentlemen, for the president's cup, T. B. Kay overscored Carl Gabrielson; Dr. H. H. Olinger overscored Ted Edwards; Connell Dyer overscored Oliver Locke; John Farrar overscored Sam Kozar; Ed Baker overscored Homer Smith; Dr. Robertson overscored Jim Young; Will Lereben overscored Chester Cox by default, and Fred Thiel sen overscored Errol Kay.

Mrs. Byron F. Brunk entertained the members of the Salem Woman's Press club last evening at her home on Pine street. Practically arranged floral bouquets and dimly shaded candles gave the room an artistic touch. The pleasant evening culminated with the serving of light refreshments. Members of the club are Mrs. Byron F. Brunk, Mrs. Burton, Mrs. Myers, Miss Carol S. Dibble, Miss Lucille Saunders, Miss Lucille Waldson, Miss Lucille Elliott, Miss Doris Leah Sykes, Miss Ella McMunn and Miss Gertrude Robison.

Three of the members are no longer in the city, Miss Sykes being now connected with the Eugene Register, Miss Saunders with the Portland Oregonian and Miss Elliott filling an engagement with the Ellison-White chautauque. Miss Saunders was among those present last evening.

The first informal dance of the season will be held at the Hillside Country club this evening. A large attendance is anticipated.

The marriage of Miss Marie Chittenden of Salem and A. M. Jerman was quietly solemnized on Saturday at the Church of Our Father, Unitarian, the Rev. William G. Elliot, Jr., officiating. The service was read in the presence of Mrs. Maude Chittenden and Mr. and Mrs. William P. Ladd.—Portland Journal.

The many friends of Lieutenant Lamar Tooe will be interested to learn that he and his bride (Marie Sheehan) are comfortably domiciled in a pretty apartment at 888 Massachusetts avenue, near Harvard university in Cambridge. Lieutenant Tooe writes friends of his wonderful trip east over the Canadian Pacific and emphasizes the intention of both Mrs. Tooe and himself to return to Oregon upon the completion of his law course at Harvard.

An attractive visitor in the city is Mrs. F. P. Hagerly of San Francisco who is a guest of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Colbert, at their lovely home, 1272 State street. Mrs. Hagerly will remain about a month.

Mrs. Ralph White announces the opening of her dancing academy at Cotillion hall for the coming season. The opening classes will be as follows: Advanced adult class, Wednesday, October 1 at 8 p. m.; beginners adult class Monday, October 6 at 8:15 p. m.; children's class Saturday, October 4 at 2 p. m.; junior class, Saturday, October 4 at 4 p. m.; children from 3 to 6 years old, Friday October 10 at 3 p. m.; classical and interpretative dancing for young ladies, Monday, October 6 at 7 p. m.

Thirteen hundred Armenian girls were recently turned into the streets of Constantinople in one week. They had been carried off by the Turks during the war when their parents had been massacred. They had been cruelly tortured by their masters for purposes of identification, and many of them were so young when taken away that they have forgotten their own language.

The war work council of the Young Women's Christian association has appropriated $30,000 for reconstruction work in Turkey to provide shelter and training schools for these girls. A service center has been opened in Constantinople, where the girls may go for assistance and for social life and recreation.

Classes are held there for them in subjects which they wish to learn, and it is hoped that a certain amount of industrial training can be given them soon. Many of these girls work at carding wool and filling comforters with wool while they are recovering from their recent hardships.

Miss Margaret White, head of the Y. W. C. A. work in Turkey, had spent some years teaching in that country before joining the Armenian and Syrian relief commission to the near east as a representative for the Y. W. C. A. and so is able to understand the needs of the Armenian girls and to direct the work of caring for them as they are rescued from Turkish homes.

A unit of four Y. W. C. A. secretaries has recently arrived in Constantinople to assist in the work.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Saxton and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hamer of Newport have been guests at the home of Mrs. Saxton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Prunk and her brother, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Prunk, during fair week, returning home last Monday.

Miss Lucille Saunders of Portland was a Salem visitor yesterday. Miss Saunders, who was formerly connected with the Oregon Statesman, is now employed upon the staff of the Oregonian.

Miss Bernice Bise left for Eugene last week where she will be a student at the University of Oregon during the coming year.

The ladies of St. Paul's Guild will meet with Mrs. Frank Spears, 346 North 13th street tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

STANDARD TEST ON GASOLINE TO BE MAINTAINED

There will be no further letting down of the bars for the admittance into Oregon of gasoline of lower than 56 degrees specific gravity, unless the existence of an actual gasoline famine should result in a demand from the consumer for such action. This was the decision announced by W. A. Dalzell, deputy sealer of weights and measures following a conference in the executive office, Monday afternoon, attended by Governor Olcott, State Treasurer Hoff, W. B. Donaldson of the Standard Oil company; V. H. Kelley of the Union Oil company; A. D. Parker of the Associated Oil company and J. C. Storey of the Shell Oil company.

At a conference two weeks ago permission was granted to the Standard and Associated Oil companies to ship in a supply of gasoline of a lower test than the 56 degrees required by the state law in order to meet an emergency which was said to exist at that time. Under this permit the Standard Oil company shipped into the state six thousand barrels of gasoline testing 54.6 degrees which has been distributed throughout the state and used, according to the statement of R. DonMalden, without any complaint on the part of the consumer who was unable to detect any difference in the quality of the oil.

At Monday's meeting it was freely predicted by the oil men—and especially by the Standard and Associated representatives—that the enforcement of the 56 degree test would result in a gasoline famine in Oregon sooner or later. The demand, it was stated, was growing so much more rapidly than the supply that it was impossible to provide the gasoline of the higher gravity test in the required quantity.

Governor Olcott stated during the conference that he had been informed by reliable parties that steps would be taken to enforce the law providing for the 56 degree test if the state officials granted further concessions to the oil companies. Garage and automobile men, he declared, were of the opinion that the oil companies were trying to put something over on the state in their claims of a gasoline shortage and it was up to the state officials to enforce the provisions of a law enacted by the representatives of the people, regardless of any individual views as to whether the law was a good one.

Gasoline now sold in eastern Oregon and testing as high as 57 and 58 degrees specific gravity is not of as good quality as the lower test gasoline used in western Oregon; it was stated by Mr. Donaldson who explained that the specific gravity test has no relation whatever to the quality of gasoline which is determined only by the boiling point and end tests.

A suggestion by State Treasurer Hoff to the effect that gasoline of a lower test be sold under another name at a lower price was declared to be impractical by the oil men. Gasoline of a lower specific gravity test but of a satisfactory quality could not be sold at a lower price than is being asked now, it was declared and a material advance in present quotations was freely intimated.

TELEGRAPH COMPANY DENIES ERROR BLAME

For transmitting a message to Wolcott, Indiana, wherein the word "cars" was wired as "cars" and thereby causing a loss of several hundred dollars to Phillip Stortz, the Western Union, in answering the complaint of Mr. Stortz, says it should not be held liable.

The telegraph company in its answer to the complaint, falls back on the various conditions that are printed on the back of the telegram and also to the fact that the sender did not require that the telegram be repeated and sent back here, for approval, which is often done where special care is required.

The Western Union also alleges in its answer, that it was the fault of the man who received the telegram in Indiana, because he did not take action to correct the ambiguity in the message.

On April 26, 1918, Mr. Stortz wired to his manager at Wolcott, Indiana, "You sell my cars now for what you can get. I see they are coming down." By the time the message reached Indiana and was taken off the wire, the message read, "You sell my cars." There was much delay and letters written, as the manager in Indiana didn't understand what was meant by instructions to sell cars.

Finally by mail, it was made known that Mr. Stortz wanted his cars sold but in the meantime the market had been falling, causing a material loss. Due to the faulty message, Mr. Stortz thinks the Western Union should foot the bill for his losses.

Roseburg now has three big prune packing establishments in operation.

SCHOOL-TEACHER NEEDED BRAINS

"I never have had such a 'God-send' come to me as when I took the first dose of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. I was afraid I would have to give up my school because of severe stomach trouble." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the stomach, liver and bowel trouble which caused such a pressure of gas that I could not use my brain at times, and my heart would palpitate awfully. Since taking a treatment of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy a year ago all this less preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. J. C. Perry and druggists everywhere. (Adv.)

Children's Ailments

DISORDERS of the stomach and constipation are the most common diseases of children. To correct them you will find nothing better than Chamberlain's Tablets. One tablet at bed time will do the work and will make your child bright and cheerful the following morning. Do not punish your children by giving them castor oil. Chamberlain's Tablets are better and more pleasant to take.

Happy Mothers

Many mothers who in order to keep the home neat and attractive, the children well fed and dressed, continually overdo.

The experience of motherhood alone causes a severe strain upon the system, from which many women recover slowly, and serious feminine disorders may develop unless great care is taken to prevent them.

To such women Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is invaluable. For many years this root and herb medicine has been recognized as the standard remedy for woman's ills, restoring them to a normal, healthy condition.

Mrs. Morgan's Case
East Hampton, N. Y. — "For two years I suffered with a female weakness, pains in my back and painful periods, and I was so weak and tired that I was not able to do my work. A friend told me to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it gave me great relief. My pains left me and I am now able to do my work and feel fine. You can publish my testimonial and if your Vegetable Compound does others as much good as it has me I will be very much pleased."—Mrs. CHARLES E. MORGAN, CARE OF E. L. Dennett.

A Word to Childless Women
There are women everywhere who long for children in their homes yet are denied this happiness on account of some functional disorder which in many cases would readily yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Such women should not give up hope until they have given this wonderful medicine a trial.
