Some relief in the shortage of school books was seen Tuesday in a statement of Manager Beddington, of the Salem Book Co., Commercial and Commercial streets that another shipment of books due Wednesday morning will practically fulfill all requirements of the grade schools. Other books, however, used in the high school, will be delayed about three weeks. This delay is explained by the fact that a strike in publishing firms in the east, where the books are obtained, has placed a serious handicap on their issuance.

How many automobiles within a radius of 30 miles of Salem, was the question asked by mail this morning of T. E. McCroskey, manager of the Salem Commercial club. A soldier who is still in Camp Merritt, N. J., is looking for a location to establish a tire and service station and wanted some figures on the situation. The secretary of state's office figured there must be at least 5000. Ben F. West, after looking at a map and noting that the 30 mile radius would include Albany, McMinnville, Dallas and a lot of other fair sized towns, thought Mr. Koser's figures too low and raised it to 15,000.

$377 Collected At Fair For Homeless Baby Fund

The sum of $377.58 was collected by Mrs. A. J. Rahn and assistants at the state fair grounds, to be forwarded to the home for Oregon homeless babies in Portland.

The slogan was "Be a Brick—Buy a Brick," to the extent of contributing $1.50 for the homeless babies of the state. Through Mrs. Rahn's efforts, the booth at the grounds was artistically decorated, and several young girls enlisted to aid in the work. As an object lesson, four babies were secured from the Portland home and the appeal was such that the booth did a good business every day. Every dollar received was sent to Portland for the home, as all services were volunteered.

NEGROES LYNCHED NEAR MONTGOMERY BY MASKED CROWD

Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 30.—(United Press).—This city was quiet following the lynching of two negroes yesterday and the death of another last night in a revolver duel with a policeman. The latter also was killed.

Robert Crooky, former soldier, and Retious Phifer, civilian, both negroes, were charged with crimes against white women. A citizen, learning late yesterday that a mob was forming to lynch them, apprised Governor Kilby by telephone. The governor immediately ordered the men transferred to Wetumpka prison by automobile. While the sheriff and his deputies were carrying out these orders they were intercepted on the road and the two negroes taken from them. The mob, numbering 23 men, all of whom were masked, riddled the negroes with bullets. Crooky was instantly killed, but Phifer lived for two hours.

Shortly before midnight J. B. Barbee, a policeman, arrested two negro men and a negro woman who were fighting. John Temple, one of the negroes, started to run. When Barbee endeavored him to halt, he fired. The policeman fell, but returned the shot before he lost consciousness.

Both Barbee and the negro died within two hours.

Merchantville, N. J., Sept. 30.—A hundred armed farmers today began a man hunt in the huge swamp eight miles east of here.

EMPLOYERS APPEAR TO HAVE UPPER HAND OVER STRIKE TODAY

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 30.—(United Press).—The Pittsburg fortresses of the steel industry were standing firm today against the onslaughts of union leaders. Early police reports from this district indicates continued additions to the operators' ranks.

Many mills, closed since the strike began, resumed operations and other mills, admittedly working under a handicap for the past few days, today reported working near capacity.

The Pennsylvania plant of the National Tube company, the Braddock works of the American Steel and iron company, the McKeesport Tin Plate company and the Pittsburg Steel Foundry were among the larger plants again operating.

Secretary W. Z. Foster of the national steel workers committee scoffed at reports of deserters from his ranks and at the optimism of the employers. He estimated the new additions to the strikers totalled thirty to thirty five thousand within the past 48 hours. Most of these, he said, were from Bethlehem and Jones and Laughlin plants.

Foster Players In City Again

The Howard Foster Players who made such a distinct impression here a short time ago, presenting "The Little Baby," at the Bligh theater, will again be seen at the Bligh for three nights commencing tonight in that great police court drama, "The Third Degree."

There are few plays that can claim the record metropolitan run that "The Third Degree" had. It was instrumental in abolishing that cruel torture known to the police as the third degree, which crept into the methods of police officials a few years ago and was used in obtaining confessions from criminal suspects.

It is a beautiful story of the struggles of a young wife trying to save her husband, a victim of "The Third Degree" from the electric chair. Nor is the story and its expose of third degree cruelty the only thing in the play. It abounds with good wholesome comedy. Every tense situation is relieved at just the right moment by the comedy injected, and the combination of the three qualities, story, moral and comedy is what has made "The Third Degree" one of the greatest of modern plays.

Hereafter the Foster players will appear Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights of each week at the Bligh, presenting each week an entirely new and up-to-date play. (Adv.)
