

SENATORS WONDER AT TREATY'S FATE IF NOT APPROVED

Washington, Oct. 1.—Senators today were beginning to hunt the answer to this question:

What will happen if the peace treaty is rejected, either by direct senate vote, or by President Wilson's refusal to accept it with reservations, which, in his opinion destroy it?

Many democrats declare that if the treaty fails the men who cause its rejection must bear the full responsibility and take action to meet the situation. In such an event they expect the president would decline to initiate negotiation of another treaty with Germany, and would not go out of his way to make easier the task of negotiating such a settlement.

A deadlock exists in the senate today. One way out is for the president to yield on strong reservations. Another is for him to flatly refuse them, which might cause rejection by senate vote. Or he could withdraw the treaty from further senate consideration or pigeonhole it when it reaches him with reservations which he considers objectionable.

Some of the president's supporters believe he may find a way to yield on these reservations without seeming to yield too much.

Although there are many indications that the senate will either adopt reservations or reject the treaty, the league of nations covenant has as many enthusiastic friends today in the senate as it ever had. That is one reason for the strength of the reservationists, it is apparent.

Without reservations these league supporters think the treaty will be rejected and will carry with it in defeat the covenant. Hence, these league friends argue, it is better to yield to the demand for reservations.

OMAHA QUIET AFTER UNEVENTFUL NIGHT

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 1.—The city continued quiet this morning after an uneventful night. General Leonard Wood said the crisis is passed and he expects no further trouble. Many negroes returned to work this morning and many who had left the city following Sunday's rioting, are reported to have returned.

Fifty-five persons suspected of participation in Sunday's rioting have been arrested, according to County Attorney Shewell, who said 250 more will be arrested.

"We are going to make such an example of the leaders of the mob that the fair name of Omaha will never again be disgraced," Shewell declared.

Among those arrested was C. I. Nethaway, real estate dealer, whose wife was found brutally murdered after being assaulted several years ago.

Mayor Smith continues to improve, physicians said, and will soon be out of danger.

ROUND COAST LEAGUE BASES

(By United Press)

Yesterday's winner, Salt Lake, Spider Baum, now a Bee held the Onks to five hits and blanked 'em in the run column. The Hive Hounds won, 1 to 0.

Some Plevins hurled them too much for the Sea's and Beavers at Portland, and the Senators and Siwashers at Seattle.

A double header will open the weeks battle between the Angels and the aspiring Tigers.

HOUSING SITUATION IN SALEM BIG PROBLEM

Installation of modern conveniences in the numerous idle houses here would tend partly to alleviate the situation, and retain these people in Salem.

G. H. Grabenhorst, of the realty firm of W. H. Grabenhorst Co., said that an average of 12 persons apply there each day for homes to rent. An average of four persons a day come with ready money to buy homes, but will not agree to pay the "prohibitive prices" asked by owners.

There seems to be a growing desire of property owners here to try to make a million off of property that isn't worth $3000," Mr. Grabenhorst said. "Such a practice should be condemned, of course. But nothing can be done with those who have so little civic pride as to frighten away the new comers with figures that are impossible."

"I believe that a building corporation, anxious to make some ready money, would find Salem the spot on the coast. It seems to me that such a firm could come in here, buy up a strip of land, erect modest cottages rent them even before they are built. Surely there'd be enough profit in it to attract the most greedy."

Several business men have offered answers to the reason why this tide of immigration, that is sweeping down with such rapidity on Salem, is growing.

One said that little or no building was done during the war. Soldiers have returned and married and, though building stopped marriage didn't, so there naturally are more people in the country seekin' homes.

The paper mills here that will soon employ at least two hundred men has cast its magnetic spell on the workmen, says another.

Ship construction in coast towns having lessened, the many families, who deserted the inland towns, are now returning, was another reason advanced.

High School Lad, Dispatch Runner, Wins Decoration

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 1.—(United Press)—Lincoln high school of Seattle is particularly proud of one of its students, Henry M. O'Brien.

The reason is that Henry, before he was 18 years old, had been through five of the fiercest engagements of the world war as runner, one of the most hazardous of all duties.

The uniform, which young O'Brien recently carefully discarded, was adorned with the croix de guerre, with star, the second highest award for valor which was bestowed by France.

O'Brien, when only 15, joined the army by telling a few white lies, and making the recruiting officers think he was 18.

Asked why he was given the croix de guerre, the high school boy modestly said: "I don't know why the cross of war was given me, but somehow they cited me. I was just a runner carrying messages, and doing reconnoitering."

Nearly $2000 in prizes are posted for the best children's exhibits at the Hermiston fair, October 23 and 24.

CATARRH

Quickly Ended by a Pleasant, Healing Antiseptic Air. Just Breathe it

The little hard rubber Hyomei inhaler which you can get at Daniel J. Fry's or any reliable druggist can easily be carried in pocket or purse. It will last a life time.

Into this inhaler you pour a few drops of the pure healing oil of Hyomei.

This oil is absorbed by the antiseptic gauze within and now you are ready to breathe it in over the germ infested membranes where it will speedily begin its work of banishing catarrhal germs and ending catarrh. Hyomei is made of Australian eucalyptus combined with other antiseptics and is very pleasant to breathe.

It is guaranteed to banish catarrh, bronchitis, influenza, tonsillitis, sore throat, croup, coughs and colds or money back. It often cleans out a stuffed up head and opens clogged nostrils in two minutes.

Complete outfit, including inhaler and one bottle of Hyomei, costs but little, while extra bottles, if afterward needed, may be obtained at any drug-gist for a few cents. (Adv)

A DISCOVERY THAT BENEFITS MANKIND

Two discoveries have added greatly to human welfare.

In 1835 Newton originated the vacuum process for condensing milk with cane sugar to a semi-liquid form.

In 1883 Horlick at Racine, Wis., discovered how to reduce milk to a dry powder form with extract of malted grains, without cane sugar.

This product HORLICK named Malted Milk. (Name since copied by others.) Its nutritive value, digestibility and ease of preparation (by simply stirring in water) and the fact that it keeps in any climate, has proved of much value to mankind as an ideal food-drink from infancy to old age.
