

All Around Town

No dance at Macleay Saturday night 236

Dr. Chalmer Lee George, dentist, 313-314 Masonic Bldg., Phone 181. 238

Cider apples. We are ready to receive good cider apples. Bring them to the Loju plant. Phex company. Phone 204.

Western Conservatory of Music of Chicago, Ill., Frank E. Churchill representative of Salem branch. Fall term begins Sept. 15th. Complete course in piano and theoretical subjects. Studio suite 1-2 Odd Fellows bldg. Phone 1671R.

Dance at the armory tonight. 235

Brown Art Burlap for draperies, 45c yard. Buren's, Com'l St. 235

Inside the house is the home, let us show you how best to decorate it. Buren's, Com'l Street. 235

Dance at the armory tonight. 235

Cheap trunks. Buren's, Com'l St. 235

A $5 Bissell's carpet sweeper will outlast a dozen brooms. Max O. Buren sells them, 179 N. Com'l St. 235

R. E. Pinney of Portland was a business visitor in the state treasurer's office Friday.

Walter V. Fuller of Dallas, district fire warden, was a caller at the office of State Forester Elliott, Friday.

Harvey Wells, former state insurance commissioner, was a member of the Shrine aggregation which patrolled the streets of Salem Friday.

C. H. Spaulding of Ashland has been admitted by the supreme court to practice law in Oregon. Spaulding is admitted on a certificate from Washington.

F. A. Elliott, state forester, was in Eugene Friday, in conference with Major Smith relative to the future disposition of the airplane forest patrol.

A permit to erect a one story frame building on his property at 155 North 21st street, was issued Friday to George J. Witty. The home will cost $2000.

John Cochran, who has been doing time in the state capitol as an index expert since the last session of the legislature in which he served as chief clerk of the senate, was a business visitor at Hillsboro Thursday.

James P. Hewitt, president of the National Life association of Des Moines, Iowa, was a visitor at the state insurance department, Friday, relative to the entry of his company into the state of Oregon. The association is already transacting business in Washington and California.

Twenty more men are needed at once for work on the Dallas-Salem road. It was announced at the municipal labor bureau Friday morning. Contractors, in charge of the road work, are sending out frantic appeals for help, and say that unless the labor shortage is remedied soon, work will have to cease.

With several visiting ministers of the Methodist Episcopal church on hand, the Leslie Methodist church, in regular session Sunday morning, will celebrate the lifting of the church debt, a mortgage of $1700. The paper will be burned. About $1500 has been expended by the church during the summer months for repairs.

Due to the damp weather and wet roadbeds, paving by the county is practically halted now. Work of repairing the Silverton road is being hurried on by part of the paving crew from the county plant at the Miles gravel pits, North Front street. Unless more favorable weather comes paving in the county will close for the winter soon.

C. E. Johnson and wife moved Monday from Salem to the house purchased by them of Mrs. H. W. Kelsey. Mr. Johnson has gone on his old run as brakeman on the Oregon Electric branch. He states that his late trouble in Portland where he was detained while the murder of a Greek was being investigated, was a case of mistaken identity.—Woodburn Independent.

School Supervisor Arnold, returning Thursday from a survey of activities at the Pringle, Oakdale, Mehama and Howell schools, reported Friday satisfactory progress in the schools, the only thing holding up the work being the shortage of books. A fair attend

APPLES
The recent storm has shaken many apples from the trees. If the sound ones are gathered immediately and put in boxes we will buy them for delivery at our Loju plant and loan you the boxes. Apples are a food product and should not be wasted. Phone 204. Phex Company. 237

W. T. RIGDON & CO.
Undertakers
252 North High Street

OREGON
DOROTHY GISH
"OUT OF LUCK"
LLOYD COMEDY
PATHE
NOW

Enos B. Gilmore of Portland, came to Salem this week and will make his home at 2234 North Fourth street.

Miss Catherine Barhyte, who is attending Oregon Agricultural college, is spending the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Barhyte.

Mrs. J. C. Pettyjohn, 145 North 14th street, who has been at Newport since June 18, acting as stenographer for the spruce production division, has returned to her home in Salem.

Marriage licenses were issued Saturday to John M. Edison, 30, of Silverton and Honor Terry, 29, also of Silverton; August Kluge, 53, 1190 North 15th street, and Mrs. C. Kayser, 45, 119 North 15th street; Fred Kayser, 22, route 3, Salem, and Pauline Kayser, 18, 1190 North 15th street.

Funeral services for Dr. W. S. Mott, who died at his home here early Friday morning, will be held Monday at 2 p. m., with the Masons in charge. The funeral will be from Rigdon's undertaking parlors. The body will be placed in the mausoleum at Mount Crest.

With the receipt of a final report in the estate of L. S. Thomas Friday, Judge Bushey dismissed the matter from the records of the county court. Heirs to the Thomas estate are: Julia A. Dimick of Hubbard and Minnie D. Shrock.

George Detwiler and J. W. Foster of Summer Lake were visitors in the office of State Engineer Cupper Friday evening, relative to the organization of an irrigation district in Lake county for the irrigation of some 8000 acres of land.

William Kennedy who sued J. H. Johnson, and several associates, claiming that they removed timber from his place for their sawmill without his permission, was granted damages to the extent of $792 by a jury in Judge Bingham's court Thursday.

Winning his legal battle against the United Brokers company of Portland, who, he claimed, defrauded him of a large sum of money through the sale of some of his onions, J. W. Collins, a farmer of the Lake Labish country, was granted $718.67 damages by a jury in circuit court Thursday.

J. W. Melnturf recently discharged from army service, who calling on friends in the state capitol this morning, before joining the colors Melnturf practiced law at Marshfield. He went to France as a member of the Fifty fifth coast artillery but was transferred to the command of a casual company in charge of German prisoners of war.

Tom A. Sweeney, Portland contractor, was a state capitol visitor Friday afternoon. Sweeney is interested in the development of the Silver Lake irrigation project in Lake county.

Wm. A. Marshall, chairman of the state industrial accident commission, and State Labor Commissioner Gram, both of whom have been in the east on state business, are expected to return to Oregon next Thursday.

In writing friends here the Misses McDaniel, formerly of this city, who are now holding civil service positions with the government at Washington, D. C., give quite an interesting account of their trip, leaving San Francisco, they went via Salt Lake, Ogden, Colorado Springs, with stopover in Chicago. In an all-state pageant given they represented Oregon. They recently spent the week end with friends at Baltimore and have just returned from a four days visit to New York. While there they visited many places of interest, including a trip up the Hudson as far as West Point.

The installation of new officers of the Knights of Columbus for the ensuing year will be held Monday evening, Attorney Frank B. Longgran of Portland, head of the organization in Oregon, presiding. Following the formal installation of officers a social session will be enjoyed. The new officers are: Grand knight, A. A. Mickel; deputy grand knight, Cyril Stung; chancellor, Albert O'Brien; recorder, Joseph Albrecht; financial secretary, A. J. Davidson; treasurer, Joseph Lebold; warden, E. T. Nash; advocate, Robert Diern; trustee, Joseph Rocque.

E. F. Carleton, assistant superintendent of instruction, will leave Sunday night for Mary where he will attend the Sherman county teachers' institute from there he will go to St. Helens to attend the Columbia county institute and thence to Gold Beach to attend the Curry county institute.

C. S. Lamping, manager of the Portland branch of the federal reserve bank, and E. F. Simms, assistant cash-ier of the Livestock State bank of North Portland, were visitors in the office of Will H. Bennett, state superintendent of banks, Friday.

ANNOUNCEMENT
To the People of Polk and Marion Counties.
We are opening a produce market and will be prepared to purchase all kinds of produce. This will give the people one of the greatest opportunities for selling and buying, our place will be in operation at once. We are already now for Poultry, Veal, Pork, Hides, Pelts, Wool, Potatoes, Onions, Beans, Hay, etc. We are connected with an eastern firm and are prepared to pay the highest prices. Give us a trial and you will be convinced. A market price will be published in the Daily Capital Journal so you may know every day the latest quotations. Our place is located at 255 Ferry street in rear of the American Automobile Garage, Temporary Phone 309.

BEN. MORRIS, Manager.

WOMEN WANTED
We need more women to build up our crews for the winter. Work will be steady. Good wages. Courteous treatment. Apply at once to Salem King's Products Co.
Front & Market Streets Salem, Oregon.

Society

(Continued from page two)

The following clipping from a recent issue of the Portland Oregonian will be of interest to a number of Salem folk:

William Harris of Salem sang effectively the solo "The Voice of One Crying in the Wilderness" in Centenary Methodist Episcopal church last Sunday morning. Mr. Harris has a rich baritone voice and is a favorite Salem soloist. He is a student of Miss Magers, director of the choir.

Among the many informal social affairs given for the wives of the Methodist ministers attending the conference, was a delightful tea, Thursday, for which Mrs. R. N. Avison, Mrs. U. H. Holt, Mrs. H. H. Vandervort and Mrs. E. E. Fisher were gracious hostesses.

Joseph Lindsey McAllister and his fiancée, Miss Alma Haines of Portland, will be guests of honor at a tea Sunday afternoon at the home of Miss Dorothy Worcester, in Portland. It will take place between 5 and 7 o'clock and about 60 friends have been invited.

The second game in the elimination series will be played by the women of the Illihee Country club tomorrow at the golf links. The men will play their third elimination game for the president's cup.

Mrs. E. E. Starbuck of Portland, who with her family, has been a guest of her sister, Mrs. W. C. Kantner, has returned home.

Friends of Miss Alta Jones will be interested to learn that she is being extensively entertained in Chicago where she is spending the winter.

Miss Alice Dabney of Portland has been a guest at the home of A. N. Moore recently.

Mrs. Ralph White announces the opening of her Dancing Academy at Cotillion Hall
Courses are as follows:
advanced adult class begins Wednesday, Oct. 1, at 8 p. m.
Beginners adult class, Monday, Oct. 6, at 8:15 p. m.
Children's class, Saturday, Oct. 4, at 2 p. m.
Junior class, Saturday, Oct. 4, at 4 p. m.
Babies, 3 to 6 years, Friday, Oct. 10, 3 p. m.
Classical and interpretative dancing for young ladies, Monday, Oct. 6, at 7 p. m.

MEET ME AT MEYERS
CATERING TO THE DEMANDS OF THE WELL DRESSED WOMAN
Three elements enter into the successful accomplishment of this
Quality, Style, Workmanship
A visit to our Ready-to-Wear Section will quickly convince the most exacting customer that we are showing "High Class," "Exclusive" COATS, SUITS, DRESSES AND WAISTS at Prices no higher than charged for inferior merchandise.

Toilet Sundries
This Department has been restocked with the most dependable and desired
Toilet Preparations
We specialize on the famous "MELBA TOILET PREPARATIONS"

New Draperies
Now is the time to tone up the home. Our new draperies will add that touch of cozy refinement.

NEW NECKWEAR
The very latest in Ladies' Neckwear just received.
Meyers
GOOD GOODS

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC
We wish to notify our many friends and patrons that we have moved our office rooms from the Oregon Electric building to rooms 211-213 Gray block, adjoining Commercial club rooms. Thanking you for past patronage we extend a cordial invitation to call at our new location. Yours for business, Perrine & Masters, Rooms 211-213 Gray bldg., Salem, Or. Phone 907.

HIP
ALWAYS GOOD
MOST TIMES GREAT
Vaudeville
SUNDAY
WARD and HOWARD
"NONSENSITIES"
GRACE DeWINTRES
Presents
A VENTRILOQUIAL SURPRISE
CHAS. LEDEGAR
"THE FLYING BOOBS"
BESSIE LOVE in
"THE WISHING-RING MAN"
TOM MIX in
"NORTH OF 65"
SIGN OF GOOD SHOWS
BLIGN
THEATRE
WHERE EVERYBODY GOES

"Baked Fresh every day!"
BAKE-RITE BREAD
Buy it Fresh from the Big Electric Ovens
Our bakery products are different than the ordinary kind, and better than you are used to buying.
TRY US!
Bake-Rite Sanitary Bakery
457 STATE STREET

HIGH GRADE HARRISON & REED
SIDEWALK SKATES
Special for $3.00
Next Week
Better get your pair today
LLOYD E. RAMSDEN
387 Court Street Salem, Ore.

SAVE MAIL ORDER POSTAGE--BUYING AT HOME? You See What You Buy Before Paying--Buying At Home