

All Around Town

Girl wanted at the Spa.

Dance armory Saturday night. 8 p. m. R. E. Pomeroy, physician and surgeon, has opened offices in the Oregon building, rooms 301-2-3.

Ogleby Young, Portland attorney, was transacting business at the state capitol Wednesday.

Dance Chemawa Thursday night.

Mrs. Mae Robe has bought the modern home on 15th street, between Chemeketa and Court, from Frank Durbin. She will move in at once.

Norma N. Terwilliger, licensed lady embalmer with Terwilliger Funeral Home, 770 Chemeketa St. Phone 724.

Six room bungalow, modern except basement, full lot, 1538 S. Eugene. $27,750; half cash, balance 5 per cent. See owners there.

Wanted, $1400 loan on modern city property value $3000. See Wm. Fleming 341 State street.

Dance armory Saturday night. 8 p. m.

Leo L. Gilbert, Elgin Six distributor for western Oregon, returned to Salem Thursday from Portland, where he went to attend to business.

Saun Louis, proprietor of a small restaurant on High street opposite the Oregon Electric depot, has sold his interests in it.

A license to conduct a shooting gallery was issued Thursday by City Treasurer Rice to A. E. Smith. Mr. Smith opened the gallery at 178 South Commercial street today.

F. W. Steudloff, the packing plant man, returned to Salem Wednesday night from Seattle and other Puget Sound points where he had gone on a tour of inspection of packing plants.

Warren Belt, secretary of the Washington state board of control, was a state capitol visitor Wednesday while visiting with Justice Burnett of the Oregon supreme court and Judge Harry Belt of Dallas.

E. L. Buchanan is agent in Marion and Polk counties for the National Life Insurance Co., U. S. A. See him for a full return premium policy on your life, it's the only kind. Phone 1332J for interview.

Artisans attention. Regular meeting Thursday night, October 9th, Masonic hall, 8 p. m. District Organizer Garret will address the assembly on a membership campaign. Cadets please be present.

In the case of Robert Lee Boehmer vs Julius Silverstone and Seneca Potts which was up for argument before the supreme court, Wednesday, Silverstone and Potts, both well known lawyers, acted as their own attorneys.

C. E. Cochran of Portland, attorney for the O. W. railway, accompanied by his father, Sam Cochran of La Grande called on members of the public service commission Wednesday, while transacting business in Salem.

Geo. C. Bowen, associate of the state land board, and Justice Geo. H. Burnett, are in Eugene today attending the grand commandery, Knights Templar, of which Mr. Bowen is grand commander for Oregon.

H. C. Bressler brought in a turp that from 5 miles north of the city that weighs 6 3/4 pounds. He says there are many like it—in fact it is "rus of garden." It measures 8 inches in diameter.

Earl L. Fisher, a former resident of Albany, who is now employed in the tax department at the court house, has bought the home owned by George W. Gray at 1381 State street, and is now moving in.

Edward A. Dunne recently purchased the 32 acre improved farm on Howell prairie, owned by Elmer H. Haw. Consideration in the deal, which was handled by the W. H. Gratenhorst company, was $5000.

P. L. Pearson and wife, who came to this city several days ago, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Westinghouse, Liberty street. After visiting here a few days Mr. and Mrs. Pearson will go to California for an extended visit.

Western Conservatory of Music of Chicago, Ill., Frank E. Churchill representative of Salem branch. Fall term begins Sept. 15th. Complete course in piano and theoretical subjects. Studio 1-2 Odd Fellows bldg. Phone 1671B.

W. H. Frost of Long Beach, Cal., representing the Egyptian Chemical company of Boston, Mass., was a business visitor here Thursday. He transacted business with the Webb & Clough undertakers company. Mr. Frost left the city at 10:05 for Eugene.

W. T. RIGDON & CO. Undertakers 252 North High Street

OREGON
HARRY CAREY
IN
"THE ACE OF THE SADDLE"
COMEDY
NOW

NOTICE—The John H. Scott Realty Co.'s business has grown so that they have found it necessary to move into larger office rooms. They are now moving to rooms number 236-237-238 Oregon bldg. Just at the top of the stairs on the second floor.

D. L. Wood, formerly with the Falls City News, but who, since last spring, has been engaged in the printing business in San Francisco, writes friends here that he is determined to return to Oregon. He says that he isn't at all satisfied with conditions in California.

G. E. Brookings, of the Quikener Press, 193 North Commercial street, having accepted a position in California, with Mrs. Brookings and child, left this city Tuesday. They are motoring south. Mr. Brookings has leased his printing establishment to D. H. Talmadge, who is now in charge.

O. M. Wilkins, president of the Portland Automobile Dealers association, was in the state capitol Wednesday on business relative to the operation of the auto mechanics act passed by the last legislature, the enforcement of which has been enjoined by Federal Judge Bean of Portland.

Don J. Upjohn, private secretary to Governor Olcott, was back at his desk in the executive office Thursday, after a vacation of ten days spent with relatives in Portland. Mr. Upjohn was accompanied on his vacation trip by Mrs. Upjohn and son, Richard, who have also returned to Salem.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to our friends for the kindness and sympathy shown us in the loss of our husband and father.—Mrs. W. S. Mott, James W. Mott, Lloyd Mott, William B. Mott.

Secretary McCroskey of the Commercial club, received a letter Thursday from Francois De Mey, Antwerp, Belgium, manufacturer of baskets and willowware, asking for a list of retailers in Salem who handle this sort of product. The letter enclosed a complete price list of the baskets and willowware.

T. K. Campbell, a member of the original board of railroad commissioners, now the public service commission, serving from 1907 until 1917, was calling on his many friends in the state capitol Wednesday. Campbell is the owner of considerable Salem property and is greatly encouraged by the way real estate is "looking up" in the capital city.

Clifford A. Lewis, for four years an attaché to the county assessor's office, has resigned his position there and is now connected with the Salem Abstract company, Assessor West, seeing the chance for advancement for Mr. Lewis in the abstract firm, readily consented to his resignation, though regretting to lose such an efficient assistant.

CITY 123456... 123456... 60
Mrs. Floyd Boyington, former deputy in the office of the county clerk, and her two children, Aylene and Alice, who have been visiting friends in Salem for several days, has left for Springfield, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Esther Levitt. Mrs. Boyington will then return to her home at Fort Benton, Montana.

The monthly report of the local branch of the Home service, post office, shows much business handled during September. Two hundred and eighty five persons were dealt with during the month, 188 were rendered material assistance by the organization and 197 received information from the officials. The expenses for the month amounted to $2886.34.

If George N. Davis, former judge of the Multnomah county circuit court at Portland, will make known his whereabouts Arthur S. Benson, clerk of the supreme court, will be pleased to forward to him a copy of an opinion in which he is interested which has already chased him through most of the army camps in the United States and France. The letter containing the document was mailed by Benson on November 12, 1918, and was returned Wednesday covered with postmarks and notations indicating the inability of the postal service to locate Davis who entered the service of Uncle Sam as a major early in the war.

Louis Rosumny, president of the Portland Salted Nut company, of Portland and Charles M. Hecht, traveling representative of the firm, were business visitors in Salem Wednesday. After transacting business here they left for Albany, Corvallis and Eugene. Rosumny, who is only 18 years old, recently resigned the position of advertising manager for the Pantages Weekly, publication of the Pantages theater in Portland, to take charge of

A NORMAL EYE
Is of a certain length, perfect in shape, and is built to give a life time service. How many eyes are like this? Very few, indeed—not more than two in ten. That means that eight people in ten require the attention of an Optometrist. Possibly you are one of these eight. If so, our service would be of great value to you.
HARTMAN BROS.
SALEM OREGON
JEWELERS AND OPTICIANS

the Portland Salted Nut company. Although probably the youngest business man of his class in the state, he is directing the business of the firm to success. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Rosumny, Portland.

Dance Query's hall at Livesley station every Saturday night. Talmadge orchestra. 241*

A total of $568,371.12 was disbursed by the state industrial accident commission during the month of September in the payment of compensation claims, according to the report just compiled. The report shows a balance of $1,178,211.98 in the hands of the commission on September 30.

Dance Saturday night new Auburn pavilion, 4 piece orchestra. 240*

J. M. Haddick, Portland attorney, was a state capitol visitor on business before the supreme court, Wednesday.

George M. Brown, attorney general, and Percy A. Cupper, state engineer, left Wednesday evening for southern Oregon where they will check up on the Grants Pass, Medford, Talent and Gold Hill irrigation districts. Attorney General Brown will also appear before the state convention of the W. C. T. U. at Ashland, tonight, in an address on law enforcement.

The two flag poles which adorn either wing of the state capitol building are this week undergoing their first "dressing up" since they were erected some five years ago. Bernard Hill a steeplejack who blew into the capital city this week has been engaged to do the work, putting two coats of aluminum paint on the steel shafts.

Judge R. B. Butler of the Dalles was a state capitol visitor Wednesday attending to business matters and visiting with his brother, Chauncey Butler, head of the motor vehicle registration department in the secretary of state's office.

W. Farrell of Hood River has filed with State Engineer Percy A. Cupper an application covering the appropriation of water from Indian creek for irrigation purposes. An application has also been filed by E. V. Smith of Salem for the appropriation of water from Vitae Springs for the irrigation of a small tract of land and the development of power.

An even dozen candidates—all men—were here to take the regular bar examinations Tuesday and Wednesday. Names of the successful candidates will not be made public for several weeks.

The case of the state against W. W. Huntley, who is charged with obtaining money under false pretenses was postponed in justice court Thursday indefinitely. It will probably come up in two or three days. Huntley is said to have mortgaged property that did not belong to him.

The inability of Chief of Police Varney to find a suitable man to fill the new position of officer in the Salem police department, left the city without the additional man yet Thursday. Chief Varney said that he is making a careful hunt, but the demand for efficient policemen in other cities has had its effect on Salem to the extent that the position here have gone elsewhere to accept police positions. He said that he hoped to find the other man in a few days.

Blankets for taking the annual school census were mailed out with instructions for enumeration work to the clerks in all the school districts of the county Thursday from School Superintendent Smith's office. The instructions ask that the census be taken some time before October 25. All persons between the ages of four and 20 years will be enrolled in the census report. Apportionment of the county and state school funds will be sent the clerks in the various districts about November 25, Mr. Smith said.

SCHOOLS AT MIDDLE GROVE AND SWEGEL FORGE AHEAD FAST

Although four miles from Salem, and little in touch with the outer world, the Middle Grove school, on the Silverton road is by no means lacking in enterprise. This fact was ascertained by County School Superintendent Smith, who visited it Tuesday.

"They're live and hard at work there," Mr. Smith said proudly. "One of the first things I saw as I went to the school was a new flag—the stars and stripes—flying from the cupola. The boys and girls in this school have shown that they are not lazy, for during the summer they have earned $1200. This was earned by 34 of the larger pupils. The highest amount made by any of them was $110."

Directors of the Middle Grove school, anxious to have it in first class shape for the opening of the classes, gave it a thorough cleaning and oiled the floor. They are planning to give the wood work a coat of varnish in the near future.

The teachers of this school are Miss Emma Ristow, principal, and Miss Elsie Wikoff, assistant.

The school board at Swegle school, on the Garden road, have made some noticeable improvements to their school. A new hypolete blackboard makes the work easier for both teacher and pupils. The school house has been thoroughly cleaned and the floor oiled. There will be no dust floating in the air at Swegle this year. The teacher, Miss Elta Plett is full of enthusiasm and is very anxious to have a successful school.

The boys and girls of the school have not been idle during the summer. They have earned $400 in the berry patches and elsewhere. This is an average of $20.40 for each pupil. The largest amount made by one pupil was $90.

A union meeting of all the churches of Eugene was called Sunday night to launch a campaign for $20,000 for the reestablishment of the Y. M. C. A.

MEET ME AT MEYERS
Coats & Suits & Dresses
In fashion's latest fabrics—
OUR FIRST EMPHASIS IS QUALITY,--
Style, Service and Price
They must measure up or we could not maintain our earned reputation for "GOOD GOODS"
COATS
Another express shipment of Coats have just arrived. They are made up of the newest fabrics, in the most accepted style, practical and serviceable. We are daily proving our supremacy in
Quality, Style and Price
Silk Underwear
Now-a-days with cotton prices soaring upwards it makes it possible to wear SILK UNDERWEAR even as an economic proposition—but those who have worn Silk Undergarments will endorse the assertion that they fit better, feel better and do certainly give a satisfaction impossible to get from other fabrics. Our showing is complete—and the prices are no higher than inferior merchandise.
Waist Special
New Georgette Waists
$6.95
You Can Always Do Better at
Meyers
GOOD GOODS
Who Will Always Do Better By You
Headquarters for Munsing Wear
The Standardized Underwear

UNDERSTANDING
We have an understanding of our business. We are regarded as a success because we have been studious and solicitous and have proven our worthiness to serve.
WEBB & CLOUGH CO. FUNERAL DIRECTORS
499 COURT STREET SALEM

MARRIAGE LICENSES.
Two Chinese, William K. Lai, a restaurant man of Minneapolis, and Eunice Hie, of Salem were granted a license to marry Wednesday by the county clerk.
Alfred Leaton, Salem, and Agnes Wilkinson, also of this city, were also granted a license.
Marriage licenses were issued Thursday to Fred Henry Albus, 27, of Aumsville, and Edith M. Highberger, 21, of Sublimity; and John J. Tufford, 23, of Portland and Garnett Lucile, 19, of Salem.

STEINBOCK JUNK CO.
Highest Cash Market Price
Wants all kinds of scrap iron, junk, metal, rubber, rags, snags, hides. We want and wreck old autos. 326 N. COMMERCIAL. PHONE 305 Don't forget the number

HAMILTON THE FURNITURE MAN
Will take your used furniture in exchange for new.
$5 Keep 'em In The Circle $5

ROSTEIN & GREENBAUM
OUTING FLANNEL
Special good grade all colors, a yard25c
These goods cost more money wholesale, a real good quality and you are not limited in your purchases. They will not be with us long, so be on time.
BLEACHED SHEETINGS
Good 9-4 bleached sheeting at, yard75c
Sheetings are high, this quality is quoted in Portland stores from 90c to a dollar a yard.
Turkish towels, a large assortment, pretty patterns from 35c to $1.50.
MARSEILLES BED SPREADS
All special good values, and sure to please you. Scaloped and cut corners, 76x81, weight 3 lbs, price $3.50
Marseilles bed spreads, 76x86, weight, 3 1-4 pounds, price $2.75.
These goods are made from superior staple cotton and warranted to give satisfaction.
REAL TABLE LINEN
2 yards wide, far below present wholesale values at yard $2.00, $2.50, $3.25, and $3.50
Real table linen, 66 inches wide, at $1.75.
Mercerized table cloth from 39c a yard up to $1.25. All good values.

STARTS TODAY—
MAE MARSH
in
"HIDDEN FIRES"
A beautiful girl outwits fate
"GO-GET-EM-POTTS" Comedy
LIBERTY
"Jack Pickford"
In a Ton of Fun
Coming Sunday
Dr. C. B. O'Neill
OPTOMETRIST-OPTICIAN
Ladd & Bush Bank Building
Cor. State and Commercial Sts.
Phone 625 Salem Or

ANNOUNCEMENT
To the People of Polk and Marion Counties.
We are opening a produce market and will be prepared to purchase all kinds of produce.
This will give the people one of the greatest opportunities for selling and buying, our place will be in operation at once.
We are already now for Poultry, Veal, Pork, Hides, Pelts, Wool, Potatoes, Onions, Beans, Hay, etc.
We are connected with an eastern firm and are prepared to pay the highest prices.
Give us a trial and you will be convinced.
A market price will be published in the Daily Capital Journal so you may know every day the latest quotations.
Our place is located at 255 Ferry street in rear of the American Automobile Garage, Temporary Phone 399.
BEN. MORRIS, Manager.