Securing High Test Gasoline

No further difficulty in securing an ample supply of gasoline of 56 degrees specified gravity has been reported to the state scaler of weights and measures by the companies doing business in Oregon who two weeks ago expressed fear of a gasoline famine in the state unless this test restriction was with-drawn. All points in Oregon now are

A record sale of apples, in conjunc-tion with what may be considered a mecord crop, is the report from the Amos Cripps farm one mile south of Riddle, so we learn from Purdy Wil-son, who was in town from Riddle to day. A splendid crop of 5000 boxes of apples has been picked from the Cripps orchard this season and these have been sold at approximately $3 per box no Mr. Wilson was told. These apples are of the Delicious, Winter Banana and King David varieties. This is a comparatively young or
