BAKER REFUSES TO

Washington, Oct. 20.—Secretary of War Baker teday refused a request of Mayor Hylan of New York to withdraw troops from the waterfront, sent there to replace striking longshotomen so that army transports may be unloaded.

New York, Oct. 20.—(United Press.)
—Announced determination of shipping interests to operate steamship lines today whether union longshoremen roturn to work or not and arrival here of 500 men of the Twelfth infantry on the George Washington, to nid in moving congested transport cargoes, indicated a criais in the work workers' strike. Meanwhile, Mayor Hylan, who yesterday met with John H. Riley, chairman of the strikers' committee; Immigration Commissioner Hughes of Philadelphis and fifty heads of local longshoremen's unions in an effort to effect a settlement, canounced further meetings would be held today.

After conferences yesterday, the mayor telegraphed Secretary Baker request-

After conferences yesterday, the may-or telegraphed Secretary Baker request-ing the soldiers sent here should not be used in place of the longshoremen until further efforts at conciliation had been made. Bylan said he believed a sottle-ment was in sight today.

Salem high defeated Estacada high 40 to 12 on the Willamette field Saturday afternon in an irregular demonstration of football. Both teams were very weak on defense the possessor of the ball making yardage at apparent will throughout the contest. Both elevens plunged the line at will and made hi gyardage around the ends, and the local team mad the pass to good advantage. The Estacada boys were outweighed ten pounds to the man. Half back Gene Gill was the big factor in most of the action of the contest. He string men in line positions.

Salem high will probably journey to Vancouver, Wash., next Saturday and clash with one of the military teams.
