WILSON WARNS ROUND TABLE GATES THEY MUST NOT TOGETHER

Conference Called Upon to Settle Differences and Also Break Deadlock

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22—President Wilson today warned the national industrial conference that it must come to some common agreement, in a letter read to the conference by Secretary Lane. The letter follows:

"Your assembly, which seems to propose to settle the whole question of the eight-hour day and working conditions by the advice of experts, is based upon the shallowest, unscientific, most discreditable and most dangerous assumption that you have divided upon, and only divided, because you are too weak to make a common decision. I believe that the public opinion of the country is not likely to be favorably disposed toward an assembly which is not able to make a common decision."

NEW PROPOSAL OF COLLECTIVE BARGAINING UP
